POLICE COMMISSIONERS SLIGHTED DEPUTATION

Not on Hand to Keep Appointment Made a Fortnight Ago-Police Officers to Retire.

HAMILTON, Nov. 4 .- (Special.) - The police commissioners gave great offence this afternoon to a deputation of the most influential citizens of Hamilton, headed by Bishop Dumoulin, Sir Thomas Taylor, the clergymen and ago they were given an appointment Jelfs announced that Mayor Stewart was out of the city, and that Judge Snider could not be on hand until 3 o'clock. The deputation waited until 3 and then, headed by Sir Thomas Taylor, with-drew, Sir Thomas exclaiming that he would not submit to such treatment. The deputation had hardly left the ality officer. The commissioners expressed the opinion that every conpressed the opinion that every constable should be a morality officer. Chief Smith reported that the following officers had almost reached the age ing officers had almost reached the age limit and would retire at the end of the year: Sergeants Knox, Robinson and Moore and Constable Hallisey. ## WORK OF INSTITUTE AS AID TO CHURCH

Prof. Kilpatrick Speaks at St. In the Dutch musical incident, Andrew's Institute on Problem of Social Work

St. Andrew's Institute, Nelson-st. was last night the scene of a bright exemplification of the excellent work which has been carried on there for a score of years. The assemblage was called by the Men's Association of New St. Andrew's Church, of which E. A. Maclaurin is president and R.

Wyle Hart, secretary.
President Maclaurin said that the work now done at St. Andrew's Institute began in a very small way in a tenement house in the St. Andrew's Church vicinity, known as the Dorset House. The work is now furnishing an outlet for the members of St. Andrew's Church worthy of the time and effort of all earnest Christians.
