World Office,
Monday Evening, Oct. 18.

A small range of price changes marked the operations at the Toronto Exchange to-day.

The only attempt made to force prices was in the case of Dominion Steel, which was bid up both here and at Montreal. Buyers are not coming in any too fiely at the present levels and some profit-taking caused the pool to let the quotations down a point in the late dealings.

Dominion Coal met a somewhat simi-

Dominion Coal met a somewhat similar market, but this issue is attracting speculative investors on each reaction.

In most of the other securities the dealings indicated a process of marking time until holders and prospective buyers have become used to current levels. Dissatisfaction is expressed at the small amount of public interest in the market and the query is, when is this interest going to broaden?

Investment purchases of small

OUTSIDE BUYERS HAVE NO CONFIDENCE.

World Office.

Monday Evening, Oct. 18.

Pool manipulation in Dominion Steel formed the principal portion of the business at the Toronto Exchange to-day. Altho prices generally in the list were firm, a certain amount of timidity marked supporting bids and this took the edge off any buoyant appearances. Outside buyers have not that confidence that is essential to a strong market and it may be that this will take some time to bring into effect. All the money necessary to finance the market is available and no trouble on, this score is at all propable this fall. Investment purchases, when made are usually only for small lots of stocks.
