TO FACE JURY ON CONSPIRACY CHARGE

Michael B. Shortall Committed for Trial by Magistrate Denison.

BANK WAS ROBBED

Said to Have Tried to Get Possession of Big Sum in Toronto.

As a sequel to the robbery at the Bank of Montreal, New Westminster, B.C., in 1911, Michael B. Shortall came up in the police court yesterday on charges of conspiring with Michael Flannigan and J. P. Walsh to defraud the Bank of Montreal, and receiving and fraudulently altering bills stolen from the bank's branch at New Westminster.

Evidence submitted by the police showed that Shortall came to Toronto on behalf of the other men to get possession of the sum of $1925, deposited in the safety deposit vault at the head office of the Bank of Toronto, in the joint names of Flannigan and Walsh. Shortall was arrested while trying to secure the money.

Yesterday morning, J. W. Timms, of the Bank of Montreal, identified the bills, explaining that they were part of the stolen money from New Westminster. The numbers of the bills, which had been cleverly altered with the object of preventing detection.

W. H. G. Phipps, accountant for the Westminster branch of the Bank of Montreal, testified to events at the actual time of the robbery, while Mr. Gould, an official of the Bank of Toronto, explained how Shortall had tried to get his hands on the money on Sept. 7, when he arrived in Toronto. Shortall was committed for trial.

HAD LIQUOR IN POCKET PAYS VERY HEAVY FINE

Joseph Seadon Admits He Stole Whiskey From Railway Yards.

Following the conviction of Joseph Seadon on a charge of being drunk, a second charge, that of "having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling house," was laid.

Policeman Lewis said he met Seadon last Saturday morning carrying five full quarts of whiskey and two empty ones. He was drunk. Policeman Lewis said he met Seadon on the Grand Trunk yards at the foot of Bathurst street.

Grand Constable Wood added to the surprise when he testified that the railway company knew of the theft, but had refrained from prosecuting because he had given valuable information regarding other thefts.

Seadon was fined $200 and costs or three months on the second charge.

Board of Education Has

Adopted Fair Wage Clause

The report of the special committee appointed to consider placing a fair wage clause in board of education contracts, instead of the present clause stating that the union, prevailing rate of wages shall be paid, was adopted by the meeting yesterday with the amendment of Dr. Noble.

This amendment calls for a clause stating that in case of any dispute regarding the rate of wages paid by the contractors to workmen, the decision of Mr. Bishop, superintendent of buildings, will be final. This new contract will be submitted to the solicitor of the board for his revision.

British Troops Going Into Action at the Somme (Taken from the official film.)

THE TORONTO DAILY WORLD by authority and sanction of the British Government and the endorsement of Their Gracious Majesties presents to the citizens of Toronto and environs as a living supplement to the cabled news despatches, the official front line moving pictures as produced at the direction of the War Office under military supervision by special operators selected from the staff of the topical committee.

THE Battle OF THE Somme
"THE GREATEST MOVING PICTURE IN THE WORLD"

SOME BRITISH COMMENTS

"The public should see these pictures that they may have some idea of what the army is doing and what war means."
—The King.
"If the exhibition of this picture all over the world does not end war, God help civilization. See that this picture, which is itself an epic of self-sacrifice and gallantry, reaches everyone. Mothers, wives, sisters and affianced ones, your hearts will hear, your voices speak in honor and glory of the living and the dead."
—Mr. Lloyd George.

"The Battle of the Somme, which was shown to a distinguished gathering at the Scala Theatre yesterday, is the greatest moving picture in the world, the greatest that has ever been produced."
—London Evening News.

"Not the glory of war do the pictures depict, but war—in all its grim, murderous reality and hideous ruin, relieved from utter repulsiveness by the heroic companionship and cheerful suffering of the human soul overshadowed and dwarfed by the gigantic powers of destruction around them."
—London Daily Telegraph.

"The pictures are extraordinarily realistic. They show all the grim horrors of war. The men are seen to leap from their trenches. The camera spares nothing, and indeed shows that some of the poor fellows did not get beyond the parapet before being struck."
—London Morning Post.

"So vivid are the pictures that you almost hear the word of command that sends the men scrambling over the parapets of the trench."
—The Liverpool Courier.

"The most wonderful films ever taken."
—The Illustrated London News.

"The film of the Big Push, officially known as 'The Battle of the Somme,' is the greatest success in point of public appreciation that the cinematograph has ever known. Five firms who print positives are engaged in turning out copies, the biggest order ever given in filmdom. There has never been anything like this in the history of the moving picture."
—London Weekly Dispatch.

"If anything were needed to justify the existence of the cinematograph, it is to be found in the wonderful series of films of the opening of the British attack on the Somme, July 1st. In years to come, when historians wish to know the conditions under which the great offensive was launched, they will only have to send for these films—for we take it as a matter of course that a number of copies of them will be preserved in the national archives."
—The London Times.

RED CROSS FUNDS ALREADY RECEIVED

Major Dinnick Believes More Money Will Be Collected This Year.

MINISTERS' COMMITTEE

Clergymen to Take Up Campaign and Interest Congregations.

Major W. S. Dinnick, organizer of the patriotic fund and Red Cross campaign, which will take the form of a three-days' canvass next week, ending on Trafalgar Day, stated last night that the campaign is well under way and that money already is being sent in for the fund. A strong committee is at work, and from all appearances the money collected this year will be more than was taken in last year.

The Nordheimer building has been turned over to the committee as campaign headquarters, and a staff of twenty clerks is there all the time to answer questions and give all information.

At two o'clock this afternoon a committee of all the ministers in Toronto will meet and will hear addresses by Sir John Hendrie and Sir Edmund Walker. They will take up the campaign and interest their congregations. This evening the ministers will be the guests of Sir Edmund at dinner at the York Club.

Everyone connected with the campaign is working night and day to make it a success. The captains all have been appointed, and their terms are mapping out their ground in readiness for the big campaign next week.

Grenadiers Honor the Memory Of Officers Killed in Action

The greatest number of recruits in any single evening was received by the 10th Regiment (Royal Grenadiers) at the weekly parade last evening and many recruit classes have been started. Uniforms are given out to each on the first evening after the recruit joins.

At the conclusion of drill last night the band played the "Dead March" and the bugles sounded the Last Post in memory of Captain J. H. Oldham and Lieut. H. C. Moore, officers of the regiment who were killed a week ago. No word has as yet been received of Flight Lieut. J. A. N. Ormsby, another Grenadier officer who has been listed as missing.

A program of tactical manoeuvres has been prepared for the regiment to follow out this fall. In anticipation of some further advance in this work next week the whole battalion had some practice in extended order work last night. Prior to the parade each member of the regiment was fitted with puttees, and these added greatly to the appearance of the men.

Capt. Arthur Wainwright Reported Severely Wounded

Captain Arthur Stowe Wainwright of Toronto, who was wounded in the big Somme advance a few weeks ago, is now officially reported from England as being severely wounded. Captain Wainwright is very well-known in business and military circles. He is the son of the late Major W. R. Stowe Wainwright, who was formerly of the Halifax garrison artillery and subsequently in the adjutant-general's department at Ottawa. Captain Wainwright was chief accountant in the Canada Life Assurance Company and was a member of the Albany Club.

Express Firms Loosen Up Offer to Extend Delivery

That the express companies were already beginning to concede the weakness of their case and are offering to extend the area of their delivery service in two or three at present unserved portions of the city, was the statement of J. A. McNicol, chairman of the Express and Freight Campaign committee, at a large-extended meeting of the Osgoode Ratepayers' Association, in McMurrin School last night. The chairman stated that nothing would be allowed to interfere in the preparation of facts and figures to be presented before the Dominion Railway Board. Both Mr. McNicol and Mr. Newman, solicitor for the coal and iron companies, stated that everything was in the shape for the hearing of the application. The Osgoode Association paid a warm tribute to the work of Mr. McNicol in this connection. The chair was occupied by President Jarvis.
