

Competitors' prizes	$350,000.00
Competitors' Travel expenses	8,810.26	$358,810.26
Professional Advisor fees	$26,531.83
Professional Advisor expenses	2,632.73	$29,164.56
Program Consultant fees	$200,685.70
Program Consultant expenses	4,641.09	$205,326.79
Miscellaneous Consultants' fees and expenses (including Jury)	$47,348.84	$47,348.84
Miscellaneous expenditures	$33,258.72	$33,258.72
Total Expenditures to date:		$673,909.17

3. Each competing firm and consortium, including the winner, was paid $35,000.

4. (a) The site is bounded by Wellington Street on the south side, the National Library and Public Archives on the west, the Ottawa River on the north and the Supreme Court and proposed Federal Court on the east. (b) 12.5 acres.

PERSONS DRAWING UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

Question No. 2,284—Mr. Fortin:

1. Under the H-PEVAIC Programme and according to code D-28, did persons drawing unemployment insurance lose their right to benefits under section 40(1)(d) of the Unemployment Insurance Act, for having failed to attend an interview pursuant to section 107 and, if so, how many (a) in Quebec, from April 1 to June 30, 1976 (b) in each region of Canada over the same period (c) in each region of Canada, during the implementation of the section involved?

2. Did the persons drawing unemployment insurance thereby excluded regain their right and were they reimbursed and, if not, for what reason?

Hon. Bud Cullen (Minister of Manpower and Immigration):

1. Statistics on the H-PEVAIC program were not separately kept for this period.

2. Not applicable.

POLICY-MAKING RESPONSIBILITY RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS AND OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY

Question No. 2,330—Mr. Stevens:

As of December 31 (a) 1968 (b) 1976, how many federal employees were charged with policy-making or the interpretation of policies, relating to employment standards and occupational safety?

Order Paper Questions

Hon. John C. Munro (Minister of Labour): As of December 31, (a) 1968, 8; (b) 1976, 14.

CBC COVERAGE OF TORONTO BLUE JAYS SPRING TRAINING CAMP

Question No. 2,345—Mr. Friesen:

1. How many CBC (a) TV reporters (b) radio reporters (c) cameramen (d) soundmen (e) other technicians covered the spring training camp of the Toronto Bluejays and, in each case, how long were they on this assignment?

2. (a) How many pieces of material were submitted by the reporters for (i) radio (ii) television (b) how many of the reports were aired (c) how many minutes of air time did this involve?

3. How many CBC (a) reporters (radio and television) (b) cameramen (c) soundmen (d) other technicians cover each of the provincial legislatures while they are in session?

Hon. John Roberts (Secretary of State): I am informed by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation as follows: 1. English Services: (a) Four sports commentators; (b) one sports commentator; (c) three staff, one freelance; (d) one; (e) one. One producer, one unit manager, one director, one production assistant and one script assistant were also assigned. The above staff were assigned as follows: TV—A crew of eight spent three weeks, a unit manager spent four days and a commentator spent five days preparing a one-hour special (fully paid for by its sponsor). One commentator and one cameraman spent March 6-14 producing items daily for two Toronto local sportscasts plus longer items for Toronto local evening news shows. All items were syndicated to CBC stations across Canada. One commentator and one cameraman spent March 25-April 3 producing a half-hour Toronto local special plus items for two daily Toronto local sports shows. Items were syndicated. A director spent one day directing an item for 90 Minutes Live, a national program, using the sports camera crew already on location. One commentator spent three days covering the camp for network news, network weekend sports shows and Toronto local station. Radio—Staff member from national sports desk of national newsroom spent two days providing items for national newscasts, plus a 15-minute item for network sports program Rebound. French Services: (a), (b) one (c) two (d) one (e) nil. One producer and one script assistant were also assigned. The French Services television crew was in Florida to cover the Montreal Expos training camp. At the end of that assignment the crew spent one day at the Blue Jays camp preparing three network television items.

2.

	English Services	French Services
(a) (i)	7	8
(i)	32	3
(b) (i)	7	8
(ii)	32	3
(c) (i)	27 minutes	13 minutes 10 minutes
(ii)	140 minutes	approximately*

* The Blue Jays were mentioned at the end of the radio reports on the Expos and no exact count is available.