

The Day After

the rush--Labor Day--get busy looking at our Fall and Winter SUITS and OVERCOATS.

UNION CLOTHING CO.

26 and 28 Charlotte Street, Old Y. M. C. A. Building. ALEX. CORBET, Manager.

"AS A MAN SOWS."

BY HELEN WALLACE Author of "THE GREATEST OF THESE," "THEIR HEARTS' DESIRE," ETC.

(Continued) CHAPTER XXIV. A Way of Escape.

Evelyn Ashe here! At Caux his presence might have been a relief...

"No? But this wonderful autumn has tempted one back to the mountains...

At Caux she had played her part well. When he had uttered the name which...

Thistlethwaite, musingly. "What a funny, difficult name to say..."

"Well, Mr. Ashe, what have you to say to me which cannot be said in ordinary circumstances..."

"I think that is where the difficulty comes in. About Miss Stormont's mother..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

WHOLE SYSTEM SUFFERED FROM STAGNANT KIDNEYS

Experience of a Man Who Almost Died Through Neglecting His Kidneys.

Severe and numerous are the aches and pains that warn us of kidney trouble.

HEADACHES--Blurring before the eyes, dizzy and faint sensations very common.

BACKACHES--Sharp stinging pains when bending, throbbing dragging weakness over the spine, lameness in the morning.

ACUTE PAINS--Urinary and bladder disorders causing inconvenience day and night.

Such were the conditions through which Mr. McKee, of 24 Hurd street, Halifax, had to live.

gone--something had come; but of all who had noted the indefinable change, Ashe alone had the true reason for it.

"That afternoon at 'Stormont,' said Isabel. 'Yes, I remember. I have not lost my memory a second time, though I have been ill. You were good enough, I remember very well, to offer me your help in some possible trouble. If that is what you wish to speak of now, I can only make you the same answer, that I know of no trouble, steadily, and even if that were, I should need no help but that of my friends.'

"You would set me outside the pale, then?" said Ashe, a sudden gleam in his eyes. "You are wrong, Miss Stormont; it is as your friend I speak; I am your friend, believe me."

"Oh, dear me," said Isabel with a sudden change of tone. "To speak as one's friend is almost as bad as to be spoken to for one's good. I have learned that already, but really the friendliest thing you could do would be to let me say good-bye now. If I am much later my father and mother will begin to imagine that I have undertaken a glacier expedition unguided. You could speak to me 'as a friend' at our hotel, surely, which, I fancy, will be yours also, as it is the only decent one open, a glint of mockery in her eyes."

"You have learned a great deal of late. I have no doubt," said Ashe gravely. "I am distressed if I inconvenience you, but I must ask you to hear what I have to say. It is still quite early, and it is better here than at the hotel. We can go inside if you are finding the air chilly. We are not likely to be disturbed; the populace does not seem to be distressingly devout."

Isobel shrugged her slight shoulders in mock resignation. "Well, Mr. Ashe, what have you to say to me which cannot be said in ordinary circumstances..."

"I think that is where the difficulty comes in. About Miss Stormont's mother..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

"No, nor for talk, since two can't walk together..."

Daily Fashion Hint for Times Readers.

SILK AND TAN COAT FOR GENERAL WEAR.

It is true that dark blues, black and browns may be more serviceable than the lighter tans and grays, but they are not half so pretty in themselves, nor as becoming to the small wearer as tan or gray in an outer garment. It need not necessarily be a light gray or tan, rather a medium tone which goes well with practically every color of dress and is becoming to almost every type of child, blond or brunette. The new fall models are quite devoid of trimming, except in the way of applications of self bands and smart stitchings. This is especially true of the more practical garments for everyday wear.

WEDDED IN KANSAS CITY

Rev. W. J. B. Stewart and Miss Elizabeth Margaret Strauchon Made One.

A beautiful wedding was celebrated Aug. 27, in St. Mark's Episcopal church, Kansas City, at 11.30 o'clock, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Margaret Strauchon and the Rev. Joseph Westra Barnes Stewart of Trinity church, St. John. The services were read by the Rev. R. G. McKinnon.

The church and altar were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and white flowers. Miss Huxley played the wedding march and during the betrothal the intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana.

The bride wore an exquisite creation designed in cream chiffon tulle. A yoke and bertha of rose point lace formed the bodice, which was further enhanced by Byzantine embroidery carried in folds down the length of the gown. Over this strikingly handsome gown was worn a full length drapery veil of tulle, arranged on the hair with cream rosebuds.

In place of the conventional wedding bouquet she carried a prayer book bound in antique leather, and later in the evening she carried a large white lace trimmed frock and carried the ring in an American beauty rose. John M. Kelley was the best man.

Only relatives and very close friends attended the church services, and a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and relatives followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Strauchon, 2833 Forest avenue. The reception room was decorated in white accents, while pink hydrangeas were used in the library and golden canines in the dining room.

Rev. and Mrs. Stewart left for Waterdown (Ont.), and after an extended wedding journey, will be at home 17 Orange street, St. John, where the parish of Trinity church will give its pastor and his wife a reception on the evenings of October 9 and 16.

LABOR PARADE AT HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 2.--Labor Day was observed in Halifax by an absolute procession was one of the best, if not the best ever seen in Halifax. The longshoremen alone paraded more than 800 strong and the whole procession was a mile in length.

In the various towns of the province there were sports. In Windsor the opening round of the ladies' golf championship of the maritime provinces took place. There was to have been a cricket match at Westville between the cricket team of that town and Halifax, but the Halifax eleven missed the train.

Douglas Black, city editor of the Fredericton Gleaner, was in St. John yesterday.

ST. JOHN WINS AT TENNIS

A team of Fredericton tennis players came to St. John for a match with the St. John club yesterday and they returned home in the evening badly beaten. The score was 22 to 5.

Play was carried on morning and afternoon and while the St. John players were easy victors the match was much enjoyed. Luncheon was served on the grounds by the ladies of the local club and at the conclusion of the match tea was served, also on the grounds.

Verner L. O. L. No. 1, will meet in the Orange Hall, Germain street, this evening. All the visiting brethren in the city as well as members of the city lodges are invited to be present.

ON THE OCEAN BLUE.

Virginia--When the storm was blowing the other day, I just threw up my hands in despair.

Howard (grimly)--Well, something got the matter with me too, but I didn't--or--I didn't throw up my hands.

THE NICKEL HAD A BIG RECORD BREAKING DAY

More people saw the Nickel's big programme of motion pictures, illustrated songs and specialties yesterday afternoon and evening than on any other day since the popular house of entertainment opened on the five cent plan. It was a record-breaking day, and every man, woman and child that attended left the theatre thoroughly satisfied and pleased.

The list of motion photographs was led off with a most heart-interesting story of a labor difficulty in the great blacksmithing works of the government foundries in France. One earnest man seeks to break the strike, but in a rage he kills an aggravating fellow laborer. The arrest, the court scene, the liberation, the return to his bereaved home and his interview with his old employer are most realistic and dramatic. The humorous film, The More Haste the Less Speed, and Wanted, A Wife, caused roars of laughter. These pictures will be shown for the last time today.

Miss Felix, by request, repeated her hit-song of the latter part of last week during the afternoon. It was like a charm. Thou Going? During the evening E. Joe Brown sang H. H. Taylor's song Since Nellie Went Away, and later in the evening the ballad success entitled Yesterday, Mr. Swane's banjo selections were received with much favor. A special feature of the performance was the showing of a large number of stationary views of the city of St. John and the St. John river, especially selected for Nickel spectators. These views will be shown again today.

FIRE PICTURES SHOWN AT HAPPY HALF HOUR

All day yesterday crowds kept pouring in and out of the Happy Half Hour to see the special new programme, and the tremendous applause that greeted the pictures, and the singers--the latter frequently had to respond to success--was a strong indication that the programme was a good one. One United States fireman said: "The best I have ever seen, and it's worth a quarter."

The Village Fire Brigade is a comedy, and at the same time shows a crack city corps who are called on to assist. This picture made a great hit, as did Put Out the Fire, another comedy picture. A Bad Boy's Dream caused nothing but laughter. A Big Nocturnal Fire is a photograph of an actual fire and is very realistic. It shows the turnout of the fire department, the rescue of a child, and its mother jumping from the top of a building into a life net. This picture was greeted with cheers.

When the Firemen Fight their Foe was excellently sung by LeDomino Roags and Harry R. LeRoy, and made a tremendous hit, illustrated as it was by actual fire scenes. The twenty-five pictures, handsomely colored, of the local fire department made a big hit. Pictures of No. 3 station and company taken during the visit of the present king; of No. 2 station and company, taken in 1865, and pictures of the various companies, taken in different years, completed a most entertaining programme.

Two pictures that created great interest were the old engine presented by King George III to Shelburne (N. S.), and the oldest engine in the world, and a horseless engine. At the request of a number of local and visiting firemen, and other visitors, the Happy Half Hour will run a morning show, starting from 10 o'clock. It is well worth seeing.

By all the signs of nature September days are here. With autumn's best of weather And autumn's best of cheer.

HOME PAPERS

THE TELEGRAPH AND TIMES

THESE PAPERS are delivered to St. John residences by CARRIER. They are taken into the homes of responsible and desirable people who pay for the privilege of reading them.

An advertisement in The Big Papers will place you in company with the most prominent local and general advertisers in Canada.

THE TELEGRAPH and TIMES enjoy a greater advertising patronage than any other two papers in New Brunswick, and if business is any indication of ability to deliver results, then The Big Papers are always "making good."

RATES ARE NEVER CUT. One price to all. Telephone main 705 for The Advertising Dept.

COMBINED CIRCULATION OVER 13,000

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kitchen, of Fredericton, are at the Royal.