

"Manoir Richelieu"

THIS New Hotel has been built by the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, to supply the need of a First-Class Hotel at Murray Bay, Quebec, a resort which has rapidly grown in popularity with both American and Canadian Tourists.

The great attraction of Murray Bay is its invigorating climate, a combination of mountain and sea air which is truly remarkable in its restorative effect on worn-out humanity. After a few days spent here, the visitor returns to the city feeling that he has taken a new lease of life.

"The Manoir Richelieu"

Is beautifully situated at the foot of the Laurentian Mountains and overlooking the grand old St. Lawrence River, 20 miles wide at this point, and as salt as the Atlantic.

The Hotel has 250 rooms and can accommodate about 400 guests. It is thoroughly modern in every particular, and handsomely furnished throughout. Hot and cold, salt and fresh water baths in the house, etc.

RATES—$3.00 to $5.00 per diem, and $15.00 to $28.00 per week.

The Hotel is under the management of MR. ALBERT MILLER, late of the Algonquin, St. Andrews, N.B., whose name is a guarantee of high-class service, and is operated on the American plan.

Address care R. & O. N. Co., Montreal, till June 20th, then at Hotel.
