Adjournment.

Friday,
Sept. 20, 1844.

Presbytery of Toronto anent the better organization of the Synod's plans for prosecuting missionary operations. The same, having been read, were referred to the following committee, viz., Mr. Romanes (Convener), Mr. Machar, Mr. McMorine, Mr. Muir, Hon. Mr. McKay, and Mr. Mowat:—to consider them, and report to the Synod.

The Synod called for those Presbytery Records which were not revised at the meeting of the Synod at Kingston, and the same having been produced, the Synod appointed the following committees to revise them, viz.—

Mr. McMorine, Mr. Barclay, and Mr. Scott, to revise the Records of the Presbytery of Bathurst.

Mr. Roach, Mr. Shanks, and Mr. Bruce, to revise the Records of the Presbytery of Toronto.

Professor Campbell, Mr. Romanes, and Mr. Mowat, to revise the Records of the Presbytery of Montreal.

Mr. McKid, Dr. Liddell, and Dr. Black, to revise the Records of the Presbytery of Hamilton.

Mr. Cruickshank, Mr. MacLaurin, and Mr. Brodie, to revise the Records of the Presbytery of Quebec.

The Records of the Presbytery of Kingston having also been produced, Mr. Fraser, Mr. George Bell, and Mr. Petrie, were appointed to revise so much of them as have been engrossed since the meeting of Synod at Kingston.

The Synod adjourned till three o'clock to-morrow ;—and was closed with prayer.
