Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations.

ANY person who is the sole head of a family or any male over 18 years of age, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months' residence upon acquisition of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader is not allowed to pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $20.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $20.00.

A Large Bible
Among other curiosities in the Royal Library at Stockholm is a giant Bible. It measures 90-centimeters in length and is about 50 centimeters in breadth—about 19 inches by 19 inches. It requires three men to lift it. There are 369 pages, but seven have been lost. The parchment of which the book is composed required the skins of 100 asses.

There are two columns on each page, and the book contains the Old and New Testaments, with extracts from "Josephus." The initial letters are illuminated. The binding is of oak, five centimeters in thickness. The book narrowly escaped destruction by fire in the Royal Palace of Stockholm in 1679. It was saved, but somewhat damaged by being thrown into a window.

Dinner and Tea Sets, Combined, from $1.50 up. Fancy Pitchers, from 75c. up. Glasses, from 25c. doz. up.
