

CARDINALS LED IN HITTING AND FIELDING IN FIVE GAMES

O'FARRELL IS SWAT LEADER WITH .437 MARK

Pennock, Ruth and Card Catcher in Line for Stardom

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—With five games tucked away in the world series battle resuming today in New York, the St. Louis Cardinals have out-hit the New York Yankees by fourteen points, and by the narrowest of margins have outfielded their American League rivals, according to the composite box score. The batting figures are: Cardinals, .259; Yankees, .245. The fielding averages are: Cardinals, .986; Yankees, .985.

With the return from at least one county yet in, there is a three-cornered neck and neck race for the nomination as the so-called hero of the series, Pennock, Ruth and O'Farrell. Pennock's three home runs inspired the Yankees to a victory, sorely needed at the moment, and O'Farrell's offensive and defensive work throughout has been impressive.

BATTING AVERAGES

The batting averages to date follow: Yankees—Gehrig, .412; Combs, .333; Ruth, .312; Lazzeri, .278; Dugan, .260; Severed, .187; Koenig, .174; Pennock, .167; Muesel, .143; team average, .245. Cardinals—Haines, .467; O'Farrell, .437; Southworth, .409; Thevenow, .383; Bottomley, .383; Douthett, .267; Bell, .211; Hornsby, .200; Haffey, .090; team average, .259.

Cardinals fans, anticipating a possible brilliant pitching performance from Alexander, still strong right arm, point with pride to the fact that the Nebraska will enter the game with an unbroken string of 21 Yankees retired in order. In last Sunday's game, the Yankees were allowed only one run, but in the third inning.

YANKS BACK SHAWKEY

The Yankee camp can claim that there is nothing in the work of the athleticly ancient but "not" decrepit Shawkey to view with alarm. The Cardinal bats to register a hit in the three and two-thirds innings he has pitched in the series. Twice called to rescue slipping mates, he has stopped the attack each time, and retired under his own power to permit pinch hitters to take his place at bat. He has needed no substitute on the pitching mound.

If the sixth game results in a St. Louis victory, this necessary seventh game, Manager Hornsby will undoubtedly call in the widely-travelled Jess Haines, who has won distinction on two undisciplined counts in the series. He pitched the only shut out game and has been the one pitcher to drive out a home run. Manager Huggins is counting no game lost until the winning run has passed the Yankee catcher, but he will have Shocker ready if there is baseball tomorrow.

Bancroft and Rudolph Visiting Saint John

Saint John had two very interesting sport visitors yesterday in the person of Dave Bancroft, manager of the Boston Braves, and Dick Rudolph, his right hand man, and former star hurler of the National and International Leagues, and a pitcher who figured in two victories for the Braves when they turned back in sensational manner the one-time famous Athletics with their $100,000 infield.

BOLTER: Why didn't you hire a lawyer to look after your case?

Bancroft: I thought that if I won I'd like to make a little something out of it myself.—Answers, London.

Could YOU be a Fuller Man?

FIT THIS DESCRIPTION TO YOURSELF:

A Fuller Man makes good money, can save, and is able to give his family its rightful advantages. He is virtually in business for himself, with all the possibilities that lie in a situation.

He is industrious, intelligent, temperate in word and deed—courtous, a thorough gentleman, sufficiently educated to be sure of himself in meeting and talking to the best people in the community. He is resourceful; he is ambitious. In short, he is a picked man, whose presence in any home is a credit to his organization.

If it is in you to measure up to this standard, FULLER WANTS YOU

Here is an opportunity for a thoughtful, able man to learn selling, and to get sound business experience while earning an uncommonly attractive financial return. And a Fuller Man's life is one of rich human experience.

If you are the kind of man we are describing, and want to exchange your present life with its limitations for a future that you can build to your own specifications, arrange an interview with D. D. Hatt, 42 C. P. R. Bldg., Saint John, N. B.

Garrison and K. P.'s Usher In Season For Inter-Association

Sentiment Plays Its Part

SENTIMENT always plays a leading role in every sporting event. This year's baseball classic is overshadowed by the death of Mrs. M. D. Hornsby, mother of the slugging manager of the Cardinals. Babe Ruth also gets his share of the spotlight due to his remarkable comeback this year. Baseball's bad boy has been the inspiration of the Yankees all season. Upper photo shows Mrs. Ruth and daughter Dorothy, taken before one of the World Series games. Left: Lou Gehrig, slugging first baseman of the Yankees, getting a good luck kiss from his mother. Lower right, Mrs. Rogers Hornsby, wife of the Cardinal manager, snapped at one of the early games clad in mourning.

Hagen Is Only Star To Save Faces of Experts In Year Of Unusual Sport Upsets

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—A year of startling upsets, the defeats of Bill Tilden, Bobby Jones, Paavo Nurmi and Jack Dempsey, gave experts who were brave enough to make predictions an awful beating.

Only one star came through for the prophets and he was Walter Hagen, who won the professional golf championship for the third straight time.

It's always safe to pick Hagen in a money contest, however, as the expert takes about as much chance in picking him as in sitting down and writing on Saturday that the next day will be Sunday.

SIX NEW TEAMS IN CHAMPION CLASS

Many Upsets in Organized Baseball This Year, Only Two Repeating

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Tragedies that befell individual champions on the tennis courts, the golf links and in the prize ring did not confine their work to those three sports for, collectively, championship baseball clubs of 1925 fell woefully by the wayside and were compelled to step down and out while newer teams climbed up from the depths of oblivion to occupy the spotlight this year.

While Bill Tilden, Bobby Jones, Paul Benjamen, Harry Greb and Jack Dempsey were being humiliated in such startling manner, dark horses in six of the eight leading leagues of organized baseball were pushing aside the 1925 champions and battering their way to 1926 titles.

A review of 1925 and 1926 records will inform the baseball fan that only two clubs repeated in the eight leading leagues of the country to retain the championships they captured a year ago.

In the National League Pittsburgh stepped out to let the St. Louis Cardinals march boldly to the front.

The American League race saw the two-year reign of the Washington Senators shattered while the New York Yankees, after a two-year absence, sneaked back into the big money.

In the American Association, the Louisville Colonels, despite the loss of Manager McCarthy, who took over the Cubs, fought through to throw back Milwaukee and retain its championship for another year.

The International League race found the Baltimore monopoly being fractured, Toronto grabbing off the pennant and all the glory that goes with it.

In the Texas League, the Port Worth Panthers were forced to meet a natural death, the Dallas Stars taking 1926 honors.

In the Southern Association, the Atlanta Crackers failed to repeat their 1925 achievements. Larry Gilbert's Pelicans of New Orleans took the flag this year.

In the Pacific Coast League the San Francisco Seals watched the Los Angeles Angels take the pennant this season while in the Western, the second club out of eight leagues to repeat, is Des Moines.

COSETTE MATCHED

BANGOR, Me., Oct. 8.—Ted Cosette, of Montreal, and Paul Olette, of Nashua, N.H., have been matched by Duncan McDonald, local promoter, as the main bout of a boxing show here on the night of the 13th.

They will go two six-round bouts. Cosette is a claimant of the New England lightweight championship and has been going fast lately with a string of wins.

MUNN LOOMS AS CHALLENGER FOR THE TITLE

German Heavyweight Wins Decision Over Knute Hansen

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Franz Dienes, German heavyweight champion, won the judges' decision over Knute Hansen of Racine, Wis., in the ten round feature match of Tex Rickard's first series of elimination bouts at Madison Square Garden, New York, a challenger for Gene Tunney's heavyweight title. Dienes weighed 194, Hansen 209.

Jack Demare, Hoboken heavyweight, won a slow ten round match from Young Bob Fitzsimmons, of Newark, N. J., on a judges' decision. Demare weighed 185½, Fitzsimmons a pound lighter.

Monte Munn, sensational Nebraskaan, battered Archie Skinner to the floor in 1 minute and 31 seconds of fighting in the first round of a six round match. Skinner was no match for the powerful waterwrester. Munn weighed 217½, Skinner 190½.

Henry Lamar, of Washington, former amateur light heavyweight champion, knocked out Arthur Wickman of New York in the third round of a four round preliminary.

Jimmy Delaney of St. Paul won a technical knockout over Alex Heley, Peruvian light heavyweight champion, in the eighth round of the ten round semi-final. Heley was in a bad way when the referee stopped the proceedings.

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP.

AFTER considerable negotiation and delay, Nova Scotia and Gloucester acting on their own hooks, to use a fishing term, are to decide the schooner championship this month. The American race committee made strenuous efforts to get the Haligonian entered in the Yankee races starting on Monday between the Henry Ford and the Columbia but marine slipway repairs were necessary and this could not be done in time. So, the United States championship will be decided without the Canadian. But the Bluesome comes to the fore—good old Bluesome—and the Haligonian and the famed upholder of the American race will settle the issue in a series commencing next Saturday. It is logical that the winners in each event will be asked to meet in a sort of a final for the championship of the North Atlantic and if that is finally arranged then it will just about be the sport piece de resistance of the year. There is something powerfully appealing even to the average citizen who takes little interest in sport in these fishermen's races and a series between representatives of Canada and the United States will just about find its way into the front pages of every big paper in the United States and Canada. The second race between the Haligonian and the Bluesome will be held on Sunday, Oct. 18 with the third, if necessary, on the following day. In a year of many sport upsets, including the names of Tilden, Willis, Jones, and Dempsey, much interest is centred on the Haligonian's effort.

IF MR. SHARKEY can beat Harry Wills next Tuesday night, he is right in line for a wallop at Mr. Tunney.

Mr. Wills is a very cautious Senegambian and must feel he can defeat the Boston boy. But he has to do it quickly.

IN THE wake of the gigantic development of sport in this section known as the western hemisphere has come a peculiar class of a customer, known and talked about at all the real big gatherings of sport mobs. We refer to the "gate crasher." The mental picture painted by these two words gives an erroneous impression of this gentleman for far from being a fence-busting, swash-buckling bad man tearing down gates and parts of the stadium as he drags his portly bulk inside, he is sometimes the most plausible of gentlemen. In fact, he is so smooth and convincing that he gives some of the barrier boys a brain storm trying to figure out who is who. No wonder they develop into such a suspicious bunch when at the opening game of the world series this year, no fewer than 19 personal friends of Gene Tunney, 12 relatives of Col. Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, and a dozen others applied at the press gate for admittance. The gate men are getting as suspicious as immigration agents and only on Thursday, John A. Heyder, whose best job is president of the National League, was held up and even when finally admitted, was told by the official bouncer that if he was caught fooling he'd land outside on his neck.

This must be annoying to such mighty personages. The next well hear of is some guy with the portly girth of Babe Ruth buying a wig of silver locks and trying to pass off as Judge Landis. If the judge ever had a haircut, he'd never get past the gate again. One-eyed Connolly, we hear, lost his amateur standing by paying to see the Dempsey-Tunney fight. Tammany Young, however, still is a simon-pure. It's a great game, if you don't pay.

BOWLING gets under way next week for what has every appearance of being a mighty successful season. Last year was one of the best in the history of the game in the city.

11 HALIFAX CLUBS AGREE TO SECEDE

HALIFAX, Oct. 8.—At a meeting tonight of practically all amateur athletic clubs in Halifax and district to the number of eleven, it was unanimously agreed to secede from the Maritime Provinces branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada and to form a separate provincial club governing body.

It was decided to call a meeting on October 22 of all amateur athletic clubs in Nova Scotia at which it is intended to complete formation of a provincial organization to govern amateur athletics. A request from the vice-president of the M. P. B. A. U. of C. that the meeting defer action and send representatives to the special meeting of that body at Montreal next week was rejected and no delegates will be sent by the clubs represented at tonight's meeting.

FIRST GAME IS ON SCHEDULE NEXT MONDAY

Hon. Rupert W. Wigmore Will Toss First Ball

THE Inter Association Bowling League will open for the season's play Monday night, Oct. 11 on the Imperial Alley, when the Knights of Pythias, winners last year, and the Garrison team, runners-up, meet to settle old scores.

Commissioner Wigmore, honorary president of the league, will be on hand to roll the first ball, and start the teams in the race for the cup which he donated and is still in competition. The G. W. V. A. have two wins and the K. of P. one already, and competition is keen, each team trying to secure the prize.

The teams of this league are the same as last year:

1. G. W. V. A.; 2. Clives; 3. K. of C.; 4. K. of P.; 5. Y. M. H. A.; 6. I. O. E. F.; 7. Garrison; 8. S. M. B.; 9. Elks and 10. Trojans.

The league at a recent meeting decided to use the Imperial Alley, Monday, Wednesday and Friday and the G. W. V. A. Tuesday and Thursday.

BILLY EVANS SAYS

ANENT BOB QUINN

WHEN Bob Quinn took over the Boston Red Sox he was hopeful that at the end of his third year he would have made it apparent that his team was going somewhere.

No one in all the world is more disappointed at the failure of his efforts than Quinn himself.

Despite the fact that he has spent close to a half million dollars for ball players, he hasn't as yet gathered the nucleus for a winning team.

Regardless of the many reverses that have befallen him since taking charge of the Boston club Quinn still retains his sense of humor.

Near the close of this season one of his scouts wired as to whether Quinn thought it advisable for him to mail a trip to Denver, Colo., and look the players taking part in a big baseball tournament in that section.

"We have plenty of tournament players on the Boston club as it stands."

"HAIR-GROOM"

Keeps Hair Combed, Glossy Well-Groomed all Day

"Hair-Groom" is a dignified combing cream which costs only a few cents. It is not a jar at any drug store. Millions use it because it gives that natural gloss and well-groomed effect to the hair that is difficult to find touch to good dress both in business and on social occasions. Even stubborn, unruly or shaggy hair stays combed all day in any style you like. "Hair-Groom" is greasyless; also helps grow thick, heavy, lustrous
