LARGE LOT OF CHAMPAGNE DESTROYED AT CUSTOMS HOUSE TODAY

164 CASES OF WINE DUMPED INTO HARBOR

Officers Watch $11,800 Worth of "Bubbly" Go Down Sewer

WAS PART OF SEIZURE MADE BY OFFICIALS

Exposure to Weather Spoiled Liquor for Ordinary Consumption

WHILE a few dry-eyed customs and excise officials and others looked on, champagne to the value of nearly $12,000 was ruthlessly dumped into a sink at the customs house this morning and went, bubbling merrily, through the sewer pipes with the water of the Saint John Harbor.

It was a very timely and untimely act, according to the point of view, for this wholesale spilling of the sparkling juice of the grape, reminiscent of other Christmas seasons, when many a gold-sealed, wire-tied bottle was stored away to be cracked on the festive occasion. On the face of it, it looks like a ruthless waste of the fruit of France's vineyard and the labor of so many of her nationals. But wait—

HAD DETRIMENTAL.

The lot of liquor done away with today consisted of 164 cases, of an excellent and time-honored brand, formed the part of a large seizure made some time ago and held pending instructions from the customs authorities at Ottawa. On account of the fact that it was cached in the woods for some time, and there was exposure to severe weather conditions, it had deteriorated to such an extent that it was regarded as unfit for consumption through any of the provincial liquor commissions. Therefore, it was condemned to pass away, and this it did today, despite a certain "kick" on its own part, and perhaps a twinge of sorrow on the part of those whose memory went back to other days.

According to the present price scale of the New Brunswick Board of Commissioners, the retail value of the wine destroyed would be in the vicinity of $11,800.

Pythian Debate To Be Held Tonight

The second of the debates between teams from New Brunswick Lodge, No. 1, and Westmorland Lodge, No. 1, Knights of Pythias, for the Pythian Senator ship, will be held tonight in the Castle Hall of New Brunswick Lodge, Union street. The Moncton team will arrive in the city this afternoon. The subject is "Resolved, that the withdrawal of the Maritime Provinces from Confederation would be detrimental to the Maritimes." The affirmative is to be taken by the Moncton men and the negative by the Saint John team. The New Brunswick Lodge team is composed of P. L. Gearson, El Boyaner and H. L. Beach. Moncton won the first debate.

W. R. Campbell of Ford Co. and B. R. Muir on Visit

W. R. Campbell, Canadian general manager of the Ford Motor Co., with headquarters in Ford, Ont., accompanied by B. R. Muir, general sales manager and former chief of publicity, are at the Admiral Beatty Hotel. They are on a tour of inspection.

When asked if the Ford Motor Co. had given any further consideration to the matter of an assembling plant here, Mr. Campbell said while the question had been brought to his notice several times and had been discussed, there were difficulties in the way at the present which made it impracticable. But there was no decision one way or other; it was left to the future.

Relative to the Duncan report, it was suggested that if its provisions were carried out as outlined by the authorities at Ottawa, such stimulus would not doubt have some influence with Congress having large shipments to make overseas throughout the year. Mr. Campbell agreed with the suggestion, and seemed to hold out the hope that matter of an assembling plant was still an open one.

MISSING GIRL STILL SOUGHT BY DETECTIVES

Domestic, Hired by Duke Street Woman, Absent Since Monday

HERE SOME DAYS AGO FROM BATHURST

Polic: Think She Is Likely With Relatives in City

While it is believed she is still in the city somewhere, the local detective department is still without information as to the whereabouts of Bernette Doucette, a domestic, who has been sought since yesterday morning. It is believed that she is staying with relatives or friends as she is understood to have some family connections in the city and in West Saint John.

Miss Doucette, whose home is in Bathurst, came to the city late last week or early this week, and on Monday night she hired with a lady residing in Duke street. She was given a street car ticket in order to go to the depot to get her baggage. Since that time she has not been heard from at her prospective home here.

RELATIVES SOUGHT.

Fearing for the girl's safety, the woman, telephoned to the Travelers' Aid, where Miss Doucette had stayed on a previous occasion, but there was no trace of her here and the Police Department was notified. Although every effort has been made to get some news of her, nothing has developed since then to indicate whether or not the girl was still in the city. On account of the fact that she told her employer that she had relatives on West Side, the police believe that she is still in the city, probably staying with some of her friends.

A communication was sent to the girl's mother this morning by the woman who had engaged her, asking for the names of relatives and friends in Saint John so that the matter can be further investigated.

It is the belief of the detectives that the girl left home without her people's consent. They do not believe that anything untoward could have happened to her, or they would have some word of it.
