N. B. Camp Summer School At Chipman Between Aug. 2 and 12

Has Important Session; Officers Are Elected

Announcements of several important forthcoming wents in which the Saint John City and County Religious Education Council might have a part were made at the annual meeting of the council, held last evening in Centenary church, by Rev. W. C. Machum, Maritime boys' work secretary. Among these events was the holding of a New Brunswick camp summer school at Chipman from Aug. 2 to 12 to take the place of the summer school at Chipman from Aug. 2 to 12 to take the place of the summer school of methods held at Sackville and to serve the New Brunswick district.

Another event was the institute for leadership which will be held in Saint John next winter one night each week for 10 weeks. The institute will be open to all Sunday school workers and will deal with all types of Sunday school work both general and special.
