

Manitoba Government Meets Defeat 27-23

LEGISLATURE TO GO INTO SUPPLY ON THURSDAY

Fredericton, March 14.—This afternoon's session of the legislature was a quiet one and without features to break the monotony of routine.

Premier Foster moved that the house go into supply on Thursday next.

The act to amend the motor vehicle act was given its second reading, as well as the act to provide for co-operative marketing of farm products.

In reply to an inquiry from Mr. Flevelling, it was said that E. S. Carter went to the Pacific coast on business in connection with the Valley Railway and also to look into the operation of the British Columbia Electric act.

A petition praying that a bill be passed in relation to the village of Rotheray was presented by Mr. Wetmore. He also presented a petition in regard to the highways of the parish of Lancaster.

Mr. Hayes presented a petition from the city of St. John regarding assessments in St. John. He also presented a petition in regard to the St. John branch of the Victoria Order of Nurses.

The house went into committee to further consider the School Act and arose at 5.40 and reported progress.

Mr. Wetmore submitted the first report of the committee on the annual report of the comptroller-general on the public accounts.

Hon. Mr. Macdonald introduced a bill to amend the act for the protection of sheep from dogs. He explained that the act had been passed as a war measure and made it compulsory for county councils to put it into force in any district on the receipt of the necessary petition. Under the bill it was made optional with municipal councils.

Hon. Mr. Robinson submitted the ninth annual report of the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved that the public accounts of last fiscal year and the comptroller-general's report be referred to the committee on the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Winnipeg, March 14.—The Norris government was defeated 27 to 23 on a straight vote of censure resolution in the legislature this afternoon, and as soon as the lieutenant-governor, Sir James Atkins, returns from Toronto, Premier T. C. Norris will place the resignation of the government in his hands.

The resolution which brought about the downfall of the Norris ministry was carried by 27 votes to 23. It was proposed by P. Adjutor Talbot, of Le Verandry, a French-Canadian member of the Farmers group, and censured the government for failing to give effect to a resolution passed last year calling for the abolition of the public utilities commission. Only three members of opposition groups supported the administration when the house divided. By voting solid against the government, the Conservative group sprang the surprise of the day, as it was generally supposed several members of it would lend the administration their support.

Premier Norris defended the course taken by the government, and maintained that a vote of censure would be unjust in as much as the legislature had not introduced the machinery for giving effect to the abolition resolution passed. Various acts had to be repealed before such effect be given, and until they had been repealed it was incumbent on the administration to pursue the policy it had.

Mr. Scully presented a petition relating to an act regarding the landlairs in the county of St. John. He also presented a petition in regard to the highways of the parish of Lancaster.

Mr. Hayes presented a petition from the city of St. John regarding assessments in St. John. He also presented a petition in regard to the St. John branch of the Victoria Order of Nurses.

The house went into committee to further consider the School Act and arose at 5.40 and reported progress.

Mr. Wetmore submitted the first report of the committee on the annual report of the comptroller-general on the public accounts.

Hon. Mr. Macdonald introduced a bill to amend the act for the protection of sheep from dogs. He explained that the act had been passed as a war measure and made it compulsory for county councils to put it into force in any district on the receipt of the necessary petition. Under the bill it was made optional with municipal councils.

Hon. Mr. Robinson submitted the ninth annual report of the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved that the public accounts of last fiscal year and the comptroller-general's report be referred to the committee on the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Mr. Foster submitted the second annual report of the New Brunswick Electrical Power Commission.

The report for the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium for the year ending October 31, 1921, was tabled. There were twenty-seven patients in residence on October 31, and an average of twenty-two for the year. The financial statement showed a total expenditure of $23,550.32, and receipts of $14,902.81, leaving a cost to the province of $8,647.51.

Increases the action of the intestines

Hundreds of men and women have already found freedom from laxatives by eating Fleischmann's fresh yeast.

Doctors are now agreed that proper elimination of waste matter should be brought about by food. One doctor comes right out and states plainly that the indiscriminate use of cathartics is one of the causes of constipation.

Physicians all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's fresh yeast because it is a fresh food, rich in those elements which keep the intestines healthy. In one series of tests cases, normal functions were restored in from 3 days to 5 weeks.

Try it out for yourself. Begin today by adding 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your everyday diet. Keep it up and see how normally and regularly your intestines act. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.

Mentholatum
Cools and heals Burns
Scalds, etc.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

At the annual meeting of the W. A. of St. James church last evening reports were given of the work done during the year. The W. A. attended a corporate celebration of Holy Communion in the morning when the service was conducted by the rector, Rev. H. A. Cody. The business session was held in the evening with Mrs. Clarence Dixon, president, in the chair, and Mrs. H. A. Cody gave the special address. The election of officers resulted as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. H. A. Cody; first, Mrs. B. C. Waring; second, Mrs. S. S. DeForest; third, Miss Charlton; treasurer, Mrs. Frederick Leonard; secretary, Mrs. John C. Kee; E. C. D. treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Vaughan; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. W. H. Holder; assistants, Mrs. Nagle, Mrs. Budge and Mrs. Pittman; Letter Leaver, secretary, Mrs. Robert Murray; Little Helpers secretary, Mrs. A. Abbinette; junior superintendent, Mrs. W. J. Edwards; rector's representatives, Mrs. Vaughan and Mrs. Nagle; delegate to the annual, Mrs. John C. Kee and substitutes, Mrs. Frederick Leonard and Mrs. R. M. Leck.

BOY RECITES IN COURT.

Pays Penalty by Memorizing Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Passaic, N. J., March 15. — John Halliack, fourteen, of Chatham, before Recorder William J. Barbour in Clifton Police Court and recited Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Halliack was arrested last week on charges of throwing stones at railroad trains, and was sentenced to memorize the address. He made but one mistake.

The younger boys read the address from school books.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS.

A progressive and ambitious programme was considered for the coming year by the Sunday School Teachers' Association of the St. John church at its annual meeting in Trinity school room last night. Stanley Olive, the retiring president, was in the chair. Rowland Frith gave an interesting paper on the "Symbols of the Church" and the discussion which followed was entered into by many of the members. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong; vice-president, Miss Idol; secretary-treasurer, Miss E. N. W. Upham. Representatives from each Sunday school in the diocese were appointed on the executive. Canon Armstrong made an earnest appeal for personal interest and activity of all members in the coming year.

Albion R. Foster, of Hartland, and John Samuel Magee, of Moncton, have been appointed authorized trustees under the bankruptcy act.

TAUNTED IN JAIL, BEGS FOR SING SING

Detective Haggerty Gets 20 Years to Life and is Hurried to Prison — Prisoners "Razzed" Him.

With his grief-stricken wife and four children in the courtroom, Detective Jeremiah H. Haggerty, who shot and killed a man who was carrying a can of wine in the Bronx last August after attempting to extort money from him and a companion, was sentenced to imprisonment for twenty years in Sing Sing by Judge Lops D. Gibbs in the Bronx county court, says the New York Times.

Many policemen were in the crowd that heard sentence pronounced.

At his own request, Haggerty was started on his way to Sing Sing within twenty minutes after he was sentenced. He might have remained in the Bronx county jail a few days had he wished, but he pleaded to be taken away from that institution because the other inmates had tormented him incessantly.

"I can't stand the 'razzing' they gave me," he said. "Please take me to Sing Sing right away."

Sheriff Edward J. Flynn of Bronx county said the policeman had lost thirty-five pounds while in the county jail because of the taunts and sneers of the other prisoners, who made life miserable for Haggerty day and night. One of their favorite methods of torment was to sing "You Were a Good Cop Once, but You're a Goner Now."

Haggerty feared that if he returned after being sentenced he would be compelled to face crueler torture than ever. So commitment papers were quickly drawn up, a limousine and deputy sheriffs were got together and the policeman was rushed off to Sing Sing in speed and style.

When Haggerty was arraigned yesterday his counsel, William J. Fallon, asked the court to set aside the verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, found by a jury before Judge Gibbs three weeks ago. Mr. Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.

Fallon said the policeman had had an unblemished reputation on the force for eighteen years, and contended that Judge Gibbs should have charged the jury to take into consideration the fact that Haggerty was drunk when he committed the murder.