MAYFLOWER DAY AT PLYMOUTH

Celebration of Tercentenary of the Landing—President
Harding Takes Part.

Plymouth, Mass., Aug. 1.—Another Mayflower came to Plymouth today, the presidential yacht bringing President Harding and an official party to join informal observance of the tercentenary of the landing of the pilgrims.

Through the streets of the town, straggled thousands of persons—100,000 was one estimate—governors, lesser officials, men of high social degree and of high rank. Many of them formed a colorful parade in which were direct descendants of the first settlers and of the friendly Indians with whom they lived in peace.

In this parade the president himself took part both as participant and as reviewer. He was to speak at afternoon exercises.

Outside stood the battlements of Plymouth, North Dakota and Delaware, and the British cruiser Cambrian. The Mayflower anchored at the port where the Mayflower sailed 300 years ago. This and other scenes are to be produced again in pageant form tonight. In a parade today one float carried Miss Patricia Alden, descendant of John Alden. Miss Charlotte Mitchell, a direct descendant of the Indian chieftain Massasoit, was a figure on another.

BRITAIN WINS IN YACHT RACE

Owens, Aug. 1.—Great Britain today won the second yacht race for the British-American cup in the six metre class, by twenty points to fifteen. This, with the first race last Friday at Ryde, puts the British yachts ahead of the Americans forty-two points to twenty-three. The British yacht Polly and Flya finished first and second respectively and the U. S. entry, Sheila, which was disqualified in the race at Ryde last Friday, finished third.

John Pire, (British), Genie, Montauk and Grebe (U. S. entries), finished fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh in the order named. The British yacht Victoria abandoned the race.

SAYS FREDERICTON POLICEMAN WAS AT "THE FARM"

Former St. John Man Mentioned in Story of Raid in Search of a Girl.

Fredrickton, N. B., Aug. 1.—No action has yet been taken against the policeman who was mentioned in the story of the raid on "The Farm," in the Woodstock road, with part of a bottle of liquor in his possession. Yexxa formerly attached to St. John Sheriff St. John B. Hawthorne, chief inspector, declared this morning that although no charge had yet been laid, information would be laid in the matter on a prohibition charge.

Sub-inspector Fraser Saunders gave an account of the two raids and the results of them. He said the first visit was made in search of a missing French girl, the daughter of a Frenchman who was unsuccessful. As Chief Findley and Saunders drove up to the house, he said, he noticed a man sitting on the porch, but hurried indoors. Saunders said he made for the front door and halted the proprietor, a daughter, and looking up, he noticed several people on the second floor looking towards the rear of a room across the hall. Saunders said he went upstairs and as he gained the top, the door in question opened and a woman came out. The latter, he said, had a bottle in her hand, and as soon as he saw Saunders he dodged back and the bottle proved to be about half full of whisky. It is reported that the police officer, when told that the chief of police was one of the party making the raid, went post haste to the third floor, and that when the chief came upon him he was standing in a room with his face to the wall. After a short conversation, he left, and was seen sitting on his own doorstep when the searchers returned to Fredrickton.

The second visit to the same place was made by the same two officers of the law a short time later in the evening. At this time the chief of police entered the house, and Inspector Saunders made an inspection of the premises. After a short search, a barrel, some nash and still were found behind a tree on the side of the house toward the river. These were seized. The chief of police was seen during the second search.

Wm. McKay, chairman of the police commission said this morning that the discharge of Policeman Yexxa from the force would be the probable outcome of the incident. He said that the commission would be held today or Tuesday to consider the matter, and that the chief of police would be present.

Chief Findley, Policeman Yexxa was charged last winter with being intoxicated while on duty. After an investigation, the commission by a majority vote reinstated him on condition of future good behavior.

RAINFALL IN THE PROVINCE HELPS

Fredrickton, N. B., Aug. 1.—Practically all sections of New Brunswick experienced a heavy rain last night and the benefit to the farming districts can be reckoned in hundreds of thousands of dollars. The forest fire situation also was greatly benefited. Small fires were put out or were under control as a result.

Chief Forester G. H. Prince of the department of lands and mines received reports of rain at points as widely separated as Plaster Rock, Newcastle, Westfield and Charlotte County. The St. John Valley experienced a heavy rain. The Charlotte County four small fires were checked.

The most serious fire over the week end was at Waynton Road north of Newcastle. It is believed that the rain put it out. The blaze reported from Red Pine Station was not serious.

The rain, although quite general, did not fall to an equal extent at all places. Some districts report no rain this morning. Locally the rain was very heavy both last night and early this morning. The total fall was well up to an inch.

Gold at New York.
New York, Aug. 1.—Gold valued at approximately $13,500,000 arrived here Saturday on the S. S. France, it was announced today. Of this amount 304 cases were sent by the Bank of France to the New York Federal Reserve Bank. The steamship Anolis brought $269,415 worth of gold from Uruguay to New York banking houses.

HALIFAX OARSMAN OF 60 YEARS AGO

George Lovitt, Halifax Champion, Who Defeated George Brown in the Sixties.

(Halifax Recorder, Friday.)
Mr. and Mrs. George Lovitt will be "at home" to their relatives and friends at 24 Gray street, tomorrow, when they will celebrate their diamond wedding.

Sixty years ago tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Lovitt were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, and they have lived a happy and contented life ever since.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lovitt (Augusta Tufts) were born in Dartmouth, but have lived in Halifax ever since the day of their marriage, which was solemnized in the old Salem church by the Rev. Mr. Cochran.

For almost the whole period Mr. Lovitt has followed the occupation of boatman at the North Slip, and it was only a year or two ago that he retired from business. In the olden times Mr. Lovitt's boats at the North End Slip were greatly in demand as he always had them kept in order, and did a rushing business between the shore and the men-of-war in the harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovitt have been members for many years of St. George's church, where their daughter, Mrs. Joseph Welch, is the soloist in the choir. They have surviving nine children. They are William, James and Frank, living in Dartmouth; George, Henry, in British Columbia, and Arthur and Louis in Halifax. Helen, the wife of Joseph Welch, above referred to, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Lovitt make their home, Mrs. McCullum, resident in Wakefield, Mass., and Mrs. Sebastian, now living in Boston. There are also a large number of grandchildren.

Mr. Lovitt was a well known oarsman sixty years ago, having won the harbor championships in 1860, 61, 62, 63, and 64, and defeated George Brown, afterwards champion of America, in the latter year for the Cogswell championship belt.
