KRUPPS AND THE BRIBES

Essen, Germany, April 25—Herr Hugenberg, chairman of the board of directors of Krupp's gun and armament works, is aroused by the great publicity given to the recent disclosures in connection with the bribery of officials of the German war office by a representative of the Krupp firm to obtain information as to pending military contracts.

He declared today that the scale of the alleged bribes given to war office employers and military underlings in Berlin amounted to "several $1, $2 and $5 bills and in one or two cases a $25 bill at Christmas."

These amounts, however, it is said, are somewhat disproportionate to the small salary of the Krupp representative who is alleged to have made the "payments."
