The Grand Circuit.
Mr. Manning, 1.58, lowered the track at Columbus, Ohio, on the grand circuit, yesterday, when in a trial heat he made the mile in 1.58.4. Perseus, the 2.05 class, continued from day. The Horse Futurity class to Rose Scott, and incidentally 1 out of Guardian Trust's first defeat. The purse was $5,000. 2.14 class trot for three-year-olds, etc. Rankin got two out of three while Kilo made it three straight. 2.15 class, purse $1,000. The best was 2.08.4.

The Fredericton Races.
A close racing marked the meet at Fredericton on Thursday. Border and Alfred King fought it out in the free-for-all, purse $500. Each had won two heats, but it was decided to give the first money and Border second. The Exposer did not through in this class, as he was badly. The best time of this race was 1.38.4. Sachse, owned in Presque, won the 2.27 pace stake in straight, the best time being 2.14 3-4. Donketh, another Presque, made it, while Kilo made it three straight. 2.15 class, purse $1,000. The best was 2.08.4.

Wilson Deprived of Purse.
A precedent in championship boxing was set up yesterday by the Jersey City boxing commission when it deprived Johnny Wilson, middleweight, of the $35,000 purse he was to receive for his labor day bout with Bryan Downing of Cleveland. He found guilty by the commission of uttering forth his best efforts to win. The commission, in announcing its decision, said that it was not sure whether his action was legal or not. Rickard, promoter, was directed to the money in trust. Counsel for the boxer indicated that the case would be to the courts for settlement.

Herman-Buff.
York, Sept. 23.—Pete Herman of world's bantamweight champion, will defend his title tonight in a fifteen-round bout to a decision against Jimmy Buff, U. S. flyweight champion. Herman announced today that he had the required weight, 118 pounds. Buff had built himself up to 116. December the St. Paul boy lost his in a decision to Joe Lynch of New York in a fifteen-round bout here. He had the fight recently by a decision. Lynch in a fifteen-round contest in New York. The flyweight title fought by Herman and has won many of his bouts by knockouts.

LING. Match Game.
The first match game of the season played on the Y. M. C. I. alleys yesterday. "Brook" quiffette took three from the team representing Frank & Sons.

Grand Circuit.
Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Seven races the schedule owing to rain, the first program today will be of five events. An effort is to be made to complete the local meet by Sept. 30. Today's programme: 1. Review Futurity, for three-year-olds, $2,000; the 2.11 Hotel pace, $3,000; the 2.13 pace, $2,000; the 2.20 pace, $1,000; the 2.17 pace, $1,000.

ATTC. Race Called Off.
Due to one member of the Renforth saving the city, the four-armed race in the Assumption crew of the side and the Renforth crew did take place yesterday afternoon as usual.

GBY PLAYERS OUT; WANT SCRIM MEN.
Other new material put in an appearance at the senior football practice at East End grounds yesterday. The prospects of getting a team are looking rosier every day, being gotten on the positions the several players are accustomed to perform and it seems as though they will be a good choice of back field. To date, however, there has been somewhat of a scarcity of forwards and a call for candidates for the line positions is extended to all who would like to get out and get into the game. Stiles, a centre-secum man for two seasons on the Mount Allison team, reported for practice yesterday and there was some other new forward line material. Another workout handling, running, passing and kicking the ball will be held on the East End grounds this afternoon and if things shape up all right by next week probably some real scrimmaging will be done. Practice this afternoon will begin as soon as possible after 5 o'clock.

WORLD SERIES TO START OCTOBER 5

Chicago, Sept. 22.—The world's series will start October 5, it was decided today, the first game being played on the home grounds of the National League team.

In the event of Pittsburgh or Cleveland should win the first two series of games will be played in the National League city, the next two in the American League town, and so on. Both New York teams are at present leading the league.

The details of the series were arranged today at a meeting of the league presidents, with Judge Landis, baseball commissioner.

President John Heydler, of the National League, won the toss and the first game for his league.

The commissioner and the league presidents fixed the prices for the series at from $1.00 to $6.00.
