FOR A WHILE WITH THE 210 OF JAY-EYE-SEE.

and then they will find it amusing to try with each quarter of a second which separates them from the 208 of Maud's.

What other record breakers are in sight? We answer that we know of none that will do the trick this year.

Roundell, Wilson and Stamboul will also among the great lights of the turf, but it is idle to talk about other wearing the crown until the 212 of Guy has been equalled.—Turf Field & Farm.

A PERTINENT INQUIRY. St. John, May 7, 1889.

Mr. KERR: Are parents and guardians alive to their duties? Ten o'clock at night, I was going home to Lower Cove, through the Queen's Square, there were many children there from 10 to 14 years of age, including in beauty language and filthy practices. I was told some conduct was going on in the street on German street, next the Baptist chapel and on the lot on Canterbury street. Some ask, where are the police? but rather, where are the fathers and mothers? We ought not to let our city be turned into a Sodom or Gomorrah.

Mr. George R. Bason, of Campbell, having this spring tried the experiment of sending his fish to the western markets by rail, via St. Andrews, instead of by water, has been successful, and has a considerable saving both in cost and time.
