

4. The proceedings are, therefore, returned in order that you make such remission of the costs of apprehension as you may see fit and further, in order that the above noted irregularities may be brought to the attention of the officers concerned for their future guidance. When they have served their purpose, may they please be returned to this office.

Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

HFGB/AMK
Encls.