

VARIETIES.

—It is considered cool to take a man's hat with his name written in it, simply because you want his autograph.

—When a new town is started on the plains, Chicago drummers camp out and wait for the new stores to be completed, to sell the owners a bill of goods.

Americans read more newspapers than any other people, but do not read more books. Probably because the average newspaper is better than the average book.

—The Jacksonville "Journal" states that a blushing school girl called at that office the other day and inquired for "papers for a week back." The idea suggested was that she wanted them for a panier.

The most likely thing to become a woman? Why, a little girl.
