WATER MAIN BURST IN TWO MORE PLACES

Test of High Service System Resumed Today

And Ended Disastrously—The Pipe Broke at Both Silver Falls and the Hickey Road.

The residents of the high parts of the city will be without water on Sunday. The testing of No. 3 main high service pipe, has again ended disastrously. This pipe was tested on Wednesday last and water it poured extra pressure had been put on a break occurred. This morning at nine o'clock the testing was resumed, repairs having been completed. All went well up to 12 o'clock when a leak was noticed a short distance west of Silver Falls.
A crew of men were on hand and were soon at work in digging down to the pipe, which they found had burst.
Work commenced at repairing the break immediately and the men had not been engaged over five minutes at the work when they were summoned to the other side of Silver Falls. Another break had occurred, and the men were divided and set to work at both places.
The last break is near the Hickey road where Wednesday's accident took place.

Engineer Hunter will superintend the job and the men will be kept at work until the pipe is repaired. It is very unfortunate that this morning's break occurred, as they will be greatly delayed in the work, and will also put many citizens to much inconvenience tomorrow.

This is the first pipe to be tested and already three breaks have occurred. No. 2 low service pipe is yet to be tested and it is an odd one than No.
3, so it is quite probable that some breaks will occur while it is being tested. The broken main will probably be repaired by Monday morning. Citizens who live in the high districts should lay up a store of water for Sunday.

CAN SCARCELY GET ANY RELIABLE APPLES

E. A. Goodwin Agrees With Mr. Sangster's Statement Regarding the Trash From Nova Scotia.

E. A. Goodwin, the local fruit merchant, speaking this morning regarding the poor condition of Nova Scotia apples, said that the fruit has been very bad this fall and he thinks he is right in saying that seventy-five per cent of the apples coming here from Nova Scotia are of an inferior grade. Mr.
Goodwin wrote to one of his buyers in Nova Scotia to get him an order.
Only fifty-eight barrels of reliable apples could be obtained and this was not half of the order. St. John and Halifax are the dumping grounds of the Nova Scotia grovers. The food stock goes to England. A peculiar thing, said Mr. Goodwin, is the fact that the grovers want as much money for their poor apples as they sell here, as they do for their best apples in Liverpool. The real winter apples have not yet made their appearance and it is to be hoped that when they do come, they will be of better grade than the apples which are now selling on the St. John market. Mr. Goodwin says that gravensteins are very poor this fall, in fact worse than "hats" have been for years.

BABY WORDEN TRAVELS 15,000 MILES

Bayswater Infant a Wee Globe
Trotter

Born in General Joubert's House in South Africa and Cut Her First Tooth While Crossing the Equator.

There's a new star in the firmament of baby travellers.

Whatever other little ones may have done in covering land and water this sweet little creature beats them all.
She is a wee globe trotter, that's it.
The Star is quite pleased to introduce to its readers Olive Lillian Worden, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. John Worden, of Bayswater, who at the age of not quite nine months rolled up a milage in travelling of over fifteen thousand.

Today she is one year and eight months old and her parents think with such a "head start" on other little ones it will be a difficult matter to outdo her oceanic and continental migrations.

Not only is this dimpled miss a long-distance tourist, but the circumstances attending her birth are equally interesting. Her father donned the king's uniform at the time of the Boer outbreak.
He was one of the resident volunteers hereabouts and sailed to the scene of strife with the first contingent from St.
John.

After faithful service during the early stages of the struggle, he was appointed a high constable in the vicinity of historic Majuba Hill. Peace being eventually declared, open hostilities ceased, but Mr. Worden was retained in the most commodious and desirable in that section of South Africa. And so the infantile subject of this article seems to be securely linked to the dramatic story of Britain's struggle with the obdurate Dutch.

Homecoming time soon came "round," but baby was only a few months old, almost too young to travel. It was thought, however, that the journey was commenced, and when the ship was about crossing the equator her delighted parents made the discovery of the pearly first molar on no less complicated a date than the King's birthday.

Before leaving South Africa, however, Mrs. Worden travelled over 2,500 miles, part of which was made in proceeding to Durban, where the family embarked.
From Durban to Plymouth, England, added 7,000 miles more to the score, and a tour of England, passing through Scotland, and sundry other fittings, meant five hundred more. All this time Olive Lillian kept up her good behaviour and good and good in best mature with fellow travellers.

By the way of the north of Ireland the Worden family started out for St.
John. Navigators will tell you this trip spelt 3,500 miles. After reaching Mr. Worden's home and staying a while Boston relatives claimed a visit, and the baby was bundled off to various American places, returning to quiet little Bayswater with another 1,000 miles on her chateleine card.

So come on fond parents, tell all about your babies who have gone long distances. Can any child the age of "Ollie" Worden equal her record.
The Star would like to know.

Any remaining tickets that are not sold by the Neptune Club members for their carnival on Monday night at St. Andrew's Rollaway will be gathered together tonight, and on Monday morning they will be placed on sale at the box office of the rink together with skate checks. Skates can be reserved by buying skate checks and leaving the name and size of skate wanted.
The supply of admission tickets is sure to be limited, and it's best to come first served. The box office will open at ten and remain open until 6.30 p. m.
