Effects of Sydney Strike Beginning

SYDNEY, N. S., June 13 .- Though the strike at Sydney steel works is now two weeks old, there have been practically no changes in the situation. One-half of the strikers have left the city and the others are going every day. Appeals for relief are increasing and now there is a heavy drain on the present funds of the association. This will be adequately relieved when the levy is made on P. W. A. lodges throughout the provinces.
