

has been carefully expended under the direction of a committee of the Faculty. More than seven hundred volumes of valuable works in History, Philosophy, Science, Poetry, etc., have already been placed on the library shelves, and books on local history, a department to which in the future special attention will be devoted, are being collected as opportunity offers.

The Library is kept regularly supplied with the leading Reviews, such as the Contemporary, Nineteenth Century, Fortnightly, Forum, Nature, Bibliotheca Sacra, Hebraica, Old Testament Student, etc., etc.

The attention of the friends of the College is earnestly directed to the needs of the Library, and to the importance of establishing some permanent fund to secure its study increase. There is no way in which money can be spent to better advantage in securing the sound development of the College as an institution of learning. Gifts of books or of money will be thankfully received and acknowledged.
