The Queen's Guests.

LONDON, July 7-A number of the American colonial and continental guers; of the International Congress of Women, having expressed a desire to pay their respects to the queen, Lady Aberdeen arranged a trip 'o Windsor this atternoon when her majesty assented to the suggestion that she should drive slowly through the quadrasgle of the castle and receives few of the more prominent delegates. It was about 20 minutes past five when the delegates took up a position in front of the private entrance. A quarter of an hour later her majesty appeared and Lady Aberdeen made the presentation, said and to promote the interest of British subjects in South Africa, with the foll recognition of the colonial self-govern-ment, Mr. Allen's avowed purpose in coming here is to interest Cana-dian sympathy and support in the struggle the Uitlandere are waging against President Kruger and his executive at Pretoris. Mr. Allan declares there is a conspiracy affoat to convert all of South Africa into a Dutch republic with K-uger at ite head, and his ensuite and the imperial government does not as to convert all of South Africa into a Dutch republic with K-uger at ite head, and if the imperial government does not sot promotive it will be more difficult to mend the situation later on. Oh, gallant was our galley from her carver steering-whee To her figurehead of silver and her hammered steel; leg-bar chafed the ankle, and we gasped for cooler air, But no galley on the water with our galley could compare! Our bulkheads bulged with cotton and out masts were stepped in gold-Weran a mighty merchandise of niggers in the hold; The white foam spun behind us, and the black shark swam below,

As we gripped the kicking sweep-head and made that galley go. It was merry in the galley, for we revelle now and then-If they wore us down like cattle, faith, we fought and loved like men! As we snatched her through the water, as we snatched a minute's bliss,
