WEEKLY.

"THE GREATEST POSSIBLE GOOD TO THE GREATEST POSSIBLE NUMBER."

VOL. V. No. 36

BEETON, ONT., NOV. 27, 1889.

WHOLE No. 244

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have completed arrangements with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a first class agricultural monthly, published in Philadelphia, whereby we can make the following unparalleled offers :

1—To every present subscriber who will get us a new subscription, for one year at $1.00, we will send the Farm Journal FREE, and the new subscriber, whose name is sent will also receive it free of all charge.

2—For 30 cents, we will send the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY, the balance of the year (1889) and the Farm Journal right through 1890.

This splendid offer enables all our subscribers to get for themselves an excellent agricultural paper, absolutely free of charge and we hope to see hundreds of our patrons take advantage of it. Please lose no time in attending to this matter. All subscriptions received with $1.00, will be entered as expiring January 1st 1891, so that the new subscribers will receive each paper 15 months. Come now, and help us.

Our Leading Premium.

TO BEE-KEEPERS.—A beautiful virgin queen, for delivery in the spring of 1890 will form the leading premium in this department of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY. The price of these when sold singly is 60 cents, but we will send one by mail, prepaid, to all those who send direct to this office $1.00 as a years subscription either new, or for a renewal of one full year. We also give choice of other premiums, and subscribers are at liberty to choose which they will have.

EDITORIAL.

The World's Fair.

SHALL IT BE AT CHICAGO OR NEW YORK ?

WHERE is a good deal of talk at the present time about beekeepers having a representative at the World's Fair which is to be held at some place in the States in 1892. At the present time it is not decided whether it will be held in New York or Chicago, and it will be a pretty close race as to which of these cities get it. From what we can glean from the dailies up to the present time Chicago seems to stand rather the best chance.

The Canadian delegates who have just returned from the annual meeting of the National Association of fair
