

CAPTAIN ROBERTSON.

CAPTAIN GEORGE ROBERTSON is a son of the late well known Dr. Robertson of Montreal. He joined the army as late as 17th of June, 1851, and in December, 1859, had been promoted to a captaincy. He served with the 12th Regiment, in the Caffre war of 1851-53, for which he received the medal, and was with the 95th Regiment at the siege and fall of Sebastopol, from 26th January, 1855, for which he received the medal and clasp, and was honored with the fifth class of the Medjidie. He also served in 1858, at the siege and capture of Kotah (medal.) The Gazette of his native city, in speaking of his former services, said "our citizens will join with us in expressing our hearty congratulation on the honors bestowed upon him, which we cannot doubt have been well earned," and of him and other Canadians "the whole country will rejoice at these honors won by Canadians."

HIS LORDSHIP THE BISHOP OF ONTARIO.

As we have endeavored, to the best of our opportunities, to give notices of the four other English bishops of the province, we will not make the list imperfect by excluding from it one of the distinguished divines who had the good fortune to be elected to the bishopric of Ontario, a short time since, and which was founded but a short time previous to the election.

The Right Reverend John Travers Lewis, LL. D., is a native of Ireland, having been born in Cork about the year 1826; he is, therefore, thirty-five years of age, and is a comparatively young man to have attained to the high and holy office which he now holds. This fact goes a certain length to demonstrate the superiority of his talents; and when we state that he has not long resided in the province, we think we shall have proved that the appointment must be highly gratifying to his lordship, and also to his friends.

His lordship is a son of the late Reverend John Lewis, M.A., formerly of St. Anne's, Shandon, Cork, Ireland. He was educated
