

affected his digestion so that he finds it difficult to take enough food. I do hope with the brighter weather he will get on faster. I went down late in the day to see Miss & Lady & Miss Broadbent
at Wendover in Bucks where they have a house. He was looking aged & was unable to talk a little about the ladies.
He lives in the garden

6773
all day, reading & sleeping there. I suppose of his pleasure in having met you & your father.
I am sorry to send him
your Act & Settlement
He is fortunate in his quarters at Wendover the air is bracing & dry & they are 500 ft up with lovely views of the woods hills & plenty of sunshine.
I heard Miss Broadbent
read a very able paper lately on the duties of