THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR
WASHINGTON

March 20, 1911.

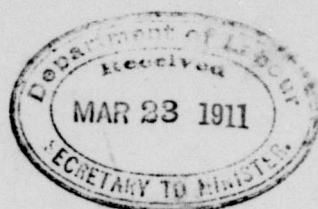

My dear Mr. King:

Owing to press of business and absence from the city I have been unable to reply sooner to your kind note of the 9th instant, which I appreciate very much. I recall with much pleasure my visit to Ottawa and hope that I may sometime see you again.

Yours very sincerely,

Wm. L. Fisher

Hon. W. Mackenzie King,
Minister of Labor,
Ottawa, Canada.
