Mr. Ivy L. Lee,
26 Broadway,
New York.

Dear Mr. Lee:

I remember you spoke of having reprinted, along with Mr. Rockefeller's other addresses, the article in the "Atlantic" on "Capital and Labor". This, as you know, I regard as an excellent idea, but might it not be well to have some reprints of this article by itself? Personally I feel I could use a few of them to great advantage, and should be glad, if any reprints are available, to obtain a couple of dozen copies. Could you conveniently have me supplied with the same?

Yours sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
