

The Federation of Chambers of Commerce of the British Empire.

BPC/EP.

(Formerly The British Imperial Council of Commerce.)

1, 2 & 3, OXFORD COURT,

and 97, CANNON STREET,

LONDON, E.C.4.

TELEGRAMS
"CONVENTION, CANNON, LONDON."
CABLES:
"CONVENTION, LONDON."
TELEPHONE: CENTRAL 8427 (9 LINES).
SECRETARY:
A. DE V. LEIGH, M.B.E., M.A.

27th September, 1926.

The Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, C.M.G., Prime Minister,
Ottawa, Canada.

C 77407

Sir,

I write to confirm despatch to you today of the following cable:-

"Lord Kysant, President, and Council of Federation of Chambers of Commerce of British Empire request the honour of your company and that of Ministers and others accompanying you at a Banquet they are giving in honour of members of Imperial Conference at Savoy Hotel, London, on twelfth November."

Yours faithfully,

Asst. Secretary.

CT 7-Recd

TIGHT BINDING

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers
Memoranda & Notes

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA