

and that a door be opened into the passage in which the closets are placed. This passage, it may be of a temporary character, is considered indispensable in order that the large room at the back may not be converted into a thoroughfare.

First Flat Back. This room will not require to be divided.

The Gas fixtures in the Front rooms may be Wall brackets conveniently placed for lighting desks; in the back room a plain two light Gas-alive will be sufficient.

Attic Flat Front. To be divided as indicated by the red line - the back room not to be divided and all those rooms

(3)