

British system of parliamentary government, there is a responsible Opposition, ready to assume the burden of office whenever the existing administration loses the confidence of the country, is the secret of the peaceful political evolution of British countries. It is our greatest safeguard against violent and revolutionary change.

On this point I should like to quote one authority. I quote from the report, which appeared in the Toronto Globe and Mail of July the 27th, of a speech delivered by Dr. Manion at ^{St. John's} Port Stanley, Ontario, the previous day. The report reads:
