

England, concerning children of members of the BBC who were being considered for evacuation to Canada. It was suggested, he said, that the CBC might make some provisional arrangement to assist the BBC in this connection. After some discussion it was decided that the matter was one which should be dealt with by the individual members of the Corporation.

It was decided that the next meeting of the Board should be held at Ottawa on Tuesday, August 27th, 1940.

The meeting then closed at 6.10 p.m.
