

	PAGE
Transportation.—The Introduction of a New Constitution....	18

CHAPTER IV.

INDUSTRIAL CRISIS OF 1843 AND DISCOVERY OF GOLD.

Withdrawal of British Money and Fall in the Price of Sheep Cause Financial Distress.—Sir Geo. Gipps was Succeeded as Governor by Sir Charles Augustus Fitzroy.—Fretful Agitations Concerning the Transportation Question.—Discovery of Gold.—Formation of the Colonies of Victoria and Queensland.—Great Influx of People from all Parts of the World to Gold Fields.—The Effects of this Great, Great Boom.—Growth of the Desire for Self-Government.—The Controversy before the Desire was Granted.—Draft of the New Constitution.—Form of Government Adopted.—Composition and Members of the First Government.—Interruption of Communications with England, by Russian War.—First Railway Line from Sydney to Paramatta Opened.—Death of the Surveyor-General, Sir Thomas Livingstone Mitchell, also Rear-Admiral Phillip Parker King.—Great Floods of 1857, Followed by very Severe Droughts.—Wreck of the "Dunbar" and the "Catherine Adamson."—Construction of Better Light-houses.—First Electric Telegraph Line Established.—Rush to the Gold Field of Queensland.—Distress at the New Gold Fields.....	33
---	----

CHAPTER V.

THE ROBERTSON LANDS ACTS AND THE CHINESE TROUBLE.

Unsettled State, at First, of the Governing Bodies, under the System of Responsible Government.—The Various Ministries and their Measures.—The Reform Measure, Granting Greater Electoral Equality and the Adoption of the Voting by Ballot System.—Better Condition of the Miners and the Granting of £3000 for the Relief of the Flood Sufferers.—Outbreak among the Cattle of the "Cumberland Disease."—Conviction of John Tawell
--	--