

No person to gallop, or ride, or drive a horse or horses, at an unreasonable rate, in the Streets of the Town, or on the Bank or Beach in front of the same, under a penalty of not less than Ten Shillings, nor more than Forty Shillings, for each offence; nor to ride on the Foot-paths, under a penalty of Five Shillings for each offence.

No Waggon, Cart, or Carrriage, of any description, to be left standing in the Street, or any Firewood, Timber, or other incumbrance, to be allowed to remain in the Street for a longer period than twenty four hours, except in cases of building, when one half of the Street in front of the Lot to be built on, will be allowed to be occupied for a reasonable time by the materials required in building, leaving a clear passage on the Footway.

No person to be permitted to carry a Private Drain into any of the Sewers sunk at the expense of the public, in the Town of York, without especial permission obtained from the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions assembled, and payment of such sum for the privilege, as under all the circumstances of the case, shall be considered reasonable and just.
