

City of Montreal.

The City of Montreal is the largest and most populous city in the Dominion of Canada. It was founded by M. de Maisonneuve, 1642, on the site of an Indian village named Hochelaga, and dedicated to the Virgin Mary as its patroness and its protector, and for a long period bore the name of Ville Marie. It is laid in the form of a parallelogram, and contains some two hundred Streets, with a population of over 140,000.

The traveller, in approaching the city from the river, is struck with the peculiar beauty of the large cut stone buildings which front the majestic river St. Lawrence on whose banks they are reared, resembling in their solid masonry and elegance the buildings of European cities.

The Island of Montreal is, in fact, most properly regarded as the garden of Canada. The city being at the head of ship navigation her local advantages are unsurpassed.
