

cony on each side for foot passengers. The bridge will rest on twenty-four firm piers, and it will be sixty feet high, from summer level. The entire cost of the work is estimated at $7,500,000.

MOUNT ROYAL CEMETERY, is situated on the east side of the Mountain, about two miles from the city. Judgment and taste have been displayed in the selection and management of the grounds; it is much visited by strangers.

THE CHAMP DE MARS. This is a favorite promenade for citizens and strangers, being the general parade and review grounds of the military, and is frequently enlivened during summer evenings by music from the fine bands of the regiments.

PLACE D'ARMES is a handsome square, between Notre Dame and Great St. James Streets, opposite the French Cathedral. It is surrounded by a neat iron railing, and tastefully laid out and planted with shade trees. In the centre of the square is a fountain.

As a place of beauty and pleasure, the ride from the city to MOUNT ROYAL will attract the traveller at all times. The distance around it is nine miles, commanding one of the finest views of beautiful landscape to be found in North America; and in returning, entering the city, a view of the St. Lawrence and of Montreal, both comprehensive and extended, that well repays the time and expense.
