

SAWMILL OPERATIONS IN MATSQUI

In addition to the large mill at Abotsford, there are several smaller mills such as above in different parts of the municipality of Matsqui. These mills are all operated by electric power of which there is an abundance in every part of the corporation. The continuous operation of these mills ensures settlers of an abundance of labor at any time that they may seek employment.