Mary Slessor of Calabar

Weaver Girl
Mission Pioneer
Consul
Judge

This is the story of one of the most remarkable women of the age. Mary Slessor was a factory girl in Dundee, who, despite many discouragements, educated herself to become a foreign missionary. The story of her life reads more like a romance of wild adventure than fact, and there is no doubt that it will take its place as the most fascinating biography in the whole range of mission literature.
