

SINGLE SCULL.

The long talked of single scull race between Hanlan and Plaisted came off on Toronto Bay on Wednesday afternoon, Hanlan winning easily. The time, like the Hanlan-Ross race, is in dispute. The Daily News had a graphic account of it furnished by Mr. Geo. Stewart, Jr.

The first deposit of $500 has been put up by the Ross backers, and the race will come off on the Kennebecasis in July. The Torontonians say "the St. John people are crazy to back Ross," but we cannot sometimes always tell how things may turn out, and Hanlan's cock-sure admirers may find out that there is "a method in our madness." "Pompey" does not seem much cast down by Plaisted's defeat, and thinks "there is life in the old dog yet."

The race between Hanlan and Morris will be looked forward to with great interest by aquatic "sports" as it will be more closely contested than the Plaisted race, and will send the Torontonians for all he's worth. It is to be hoped in that race there will not be any more stupid disputes about time.

NEW MUSIC.—We are indebted to the author, Mr. C. F. Adams, through his publishers, Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston, for copies of the music of "Loedle Jacob Strauss" and "Der Drummer." The tunes, to which these popular poems have been set, are exceedingly pretty. Parties wishing copies can order them through Mr. Carson Flood, King street.

DEXTER SMITH'S deserves its great popularity. It is not only a first class magazine of music—but also caters for a variety of other tastes—having departments for checker, chess and base ball players, and for florists, and house-keepers. Its Fashion column is under the care of Madame Demorest. And its editorial columns always sparkle with the wittiest of paragraphs.

THE June Folio opens with an interesting and rather amusing sketch, by J. W. Moore, of "How they obtained the pitch of a tune," describing the difficulties our fathers encountered in their efforts to "start the tunes" without the aid of a musical instrument. The subject of this month's portrait is Mr. Chas. R. Adams, the American tenor, who has been starring it in Europe. In the musical department, the programme of vocal and instrumental pieces, is sufficiently varied to satisfy every taste. Both the French and English version of the "Chanson des Cloches," or the Song of the Bells, is given. The Folio is for sale at the music store of Mr. C. Flood, 87 King street.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.—On Saturday evening last Baron Albert Blanc, Italian Minister to the U. S., was married to Miss Delaue Terry of New York. "Jenkins" gives a gushing description of the affair, but does not tell us that Terry-pin soup and Blanc-mange were served up to the guests, nor does he say whether they went to Mont Blanc or Terry-del-fuego to spend their honeymoon.

OF-FISH-AT-!!—The attention of anglers is directed to Mr. McLeod's ad. in another column. As the "Queen's Birth Day" is approaching, parties who wish to go in pursuit of the finny-uns, and want anything in that "line" had better perch-ase immediately from Mack.

We direct attention to Mr. H. Black's card in our Directory. It should have appeared last week but was accidentally left out. Although Mr. Black is a designing man we assure him that we did not do this designedly.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF.—Just as the Relief Committee are about to leave the King Square, the Square Committee are giving re-leaf to the square in the shape of young trees.

THE MAYOR IN A NEW "BRANCH" OF BUSINESS.—Mayor Earle was actively engaged, on Thursday afternoon, planting trees on the King Square. We are rather surprised that His Worship, after swearing loyalty to Her Majesty, should be found engaged in such a trees-on-able business.

Feed pigs well if you would make pork raising profitable.—Boston Traveller.
That's sow, feed pigs well with pig swill and pigs will pig swill.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, with their pinched features and emaciated forms, appeal strongly to the best sympathies of everyone. Yet our sympathies are of but little benefit unless they take a practical form, and the sufferings from both Mental and Physical Debility be relieved by administering some strength-giving and nutritive Blood and Brain food as Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Lacto Phosphate of Lime. It aids the processes of digestion and assimilation, re-vitalizes the blood and, supplying material for bone and muscle structure, furnishes the foundation for strong and healthy constitutions.

Prepared solely by J. H. Robinson, Pharmaceutical Chemist, St. John, N. B., and for sale by all Druggists and General Dealers. Price $1.60 per bottle; six bottles for $5.00.
