It is a singular tribute to Mr. Malcolm that he should have been able to hypnotize people into such a proposition in a year when solid enterprises went a-begging. It is even more remarkable that he should, after such a fiasco, go back to the public with the same scheme under a new name. And

THE 1908 CAMPAIGN

Already The Great-West Life has made an admirable start in the 1908 Canvass. The year promises to be well in line with the fifteen preceding years—each away ahead of the last!

To capable solicitors the Great-West offers unique opportunities. Half the battle in the Life Insurance business lies in working for a progressive Company—in handling popular plans—and in being able to count on continual support from headquarters. These advantages the Great-West Agent has in abundant measure.

Openings occur at the present time at:—
Brockville, Picton, Parry Sound, Chatham, Windsor and other points.

the joke is that he will probably secure quite a number of subscribers to the "Security Bank." Mr. Malcolm must have many a quiet laugh to himself when he sits at home in the evening.—Calgary Herald.

Another new industry has been secured for Hamilton, Ont. It is the Bell Thread Company, of Montreal, which will occupy the premises formerly used by the Ontario Canning Company. The company will make thread for manufacturing purposes.

A change has been made in the freight handling department of the C.P.R. in Saskatchewan, whereby the freight on all points between Moose Jaw and Calgary is re-shipped at the former point. Hitherto, part of the work was done in Medicine Hat. The present arrangement will bring Moose Jaw a considerably larger staff in the freight department.
