THE 13TH EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

OF THE DIOCESE OF LONDON The clergy and laity of the diocese of London are invited to assist at the 13th Diocesan Eucharistic Con-gress to be held at Parkhill, Ont., Thursday, June 19, 1924, the Feast of Corpus Christi.

At 6:30 that morning there will be a Low Mass and Holy Communion at St. Columba's Church, Bornish, the mission church. At 7:00 a. m. a Low Mass will be said by one of the visiting priests and Holy Communion given at the Sacred Heart Church in Parkhill.

At 10:30 His Lordship the Bishop, Right Rev. M. F. Fallon, D. D., will celebrate Pontifical High Mass assisted by Rev. John F. Stanley, of Woodstock, as assistant priest and Rev. Thomas Ford, of Woodslee and Rev. John F. Andrewjeski, of Holy Trinity Church, Windsor, as Deacons of Honor. This Mass will be on the grounds of the Church at Parkhill. The Revs. Isidore Poisson and Ity is and strength. The vigor and vivacity of her intelligence seemed the church at Parkhill. The Revs. Isidore Poisson and James Louis Quinlan who will be ordained priests the Saturday previous at St. Peter's Cathedral, London, will be the Deacon and Subdeacon of the Mass. Seminari-James Louis Quinlan who will be ordained priests the Saturday previous at St. Peter's Cathedral, London, will be the Deacon and Subdeacon of the Mass. Seminarians of St. Peter's Seminary—the diocesan Seminary—will fill the other offices of the Mass, and sing the Mass. The precedes will be Personner. the Mass. The preacher will be Rev. John Henry Chisholm, of St. Mary's Church, London. The procession of the Blessed Sacrament follows this Mass and the Blessed Sacrament remains exposed in the Church all day for adoration. During the afternoon at 2:30 a Conference for the place where Thy glory dwelleth," could be truly said of her as her remains rested before the Sanctuary of the new church, the day the priests will take place. It will be the 23rd annual meeting of the members of the Priests' Eucharistic League. At a future Congress it is hoped the members of the Priests' Eucharitished by Reverend Joseph Englert, assisted by Reverend Father Egan, deacon, and Reverend Father Egan, deacon, and Reverend Priests' Eucharistic Priests' Eucharis People's Eucharistic League or Blessed Sacrament Society will also hold a Conference. America has had one of the International Eucharistic Congresses—at Montreal in 1910. The next to be held in America will be in 1926 at Chicago, U. S. With its Congress next year London, Canada, will have had a Diocesan Congress in honor of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament each year! between these two International Congresses. These Congresses are approved of by His Lordship the Bishop of London, and judging from the efforts made by the clergy and people of the diocese in attending will continue to be an annual event in London diocese. It is a day in America has had one of the Interin London diocese. It is a day in the year on which the diocese assembles in pilgrimage in one of the parishes or institutions and gives public manifestation of Faith and Love to Jesus in the Eucharist. On Friday, the 9th inst., a deeply religious and most interesting life was ended when Mrs. Mary O'Brien calmly expired surrounded by the sorrowing members of her family. The deceased was born in Limerick, Ireland, and inherited all the charm-Ireland, and inherited all the charming graces and characteristics of Limerick women. Coming to Canada in 1852 it was not surprising that her mind was in truth a storehouse of Canadian lore. It was impossible not to be struck by war personal. interest was forgotten.

On May 1st, at his residence on George St., Arthur, Ont., James A. Farrell succumbed to septic pleurisy after a brief illness. As the news of his demise was passed along from friend to friend it was invariably attended by expressions of sincere regret and of respect to the memory of the deceased.

His funeral, which was largely attended by all denominations, took place on Saturday morning, from St. John's Church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev.

THE MISSIONARY IDEAL

The standard and value of life are estimated by the ideals which inspire and dominate it. For, ideals are the embodiment of the high principles that direct the activities of life and mould them to their sublime purpose. The higher the ideal, the more noble a life.

Of all Catholic ideals, undoubtedly, the most sacred in its sublime object, the most unselfish in its noble purpose, the most extensive in its field of action and most enduring in its results, is the ideal of a missionary life.

Catholic young women, the beautiful and sublime ideal awaiting you in the mission fields of Western Canada. There, school teachers, catechists, nurses social workers are needed by the hundred to help the Bishops and priests to establish and extend the Kingdom of Jesus Christ in those immense Provinces where the Church and the Country are still in the making.

in the making.

Gentle reader, would you not be one of those generous souls for whom this missionary ideal has a message? "Sisters of Service"

The Right Rev. Monsignor Hickey, P. P., says:

"Work like that of the Society will bring the Grace of God to the country. The society is setting a grand example in the work of spreading the light of the Gospel in pagan lands. It is a sign that the Irish people are realizing their shortcomings and are thus becom-missionaries it is pointed out that there are, in Africa alone, 20,000,-000 natives calling for priests. They are asking for Irish priests and nuns.

The Society is supported by the clergy, secular and regular, and by leading Catholic laymen throughout the country.

A Real Book Bargain! Abbe Pierre of TO-DAY

BY JAY WILLIAM HUDSON

"Not once in a decade comes such a book' I N the lovely old land of Gascony, home of the hot headed and stal-wart race of D'Artagnan and Cyrano, unfolds a story of arresting charm, that delves deep into the roots of human nature and finds those common faiths which knit mankind together. Abbe Pierre views life from the vantage point of kindly age, and in the flowering of love between enchanting Germaine Sance and the young American, David Ware, he follows the rich happiness of young love striving through crowding difficulties to the fullest measure of attainment.

If this charming idyll of Gascony fails to become a classic it will be because the love of literature has perished from the land. Ida M. Tarbell Abbe Pierre is delightful. It has left me a whole gallery of pleasant portraits and a tremendous determination to find my way to Gascony one of these days, Gertrude Atherton Exquisite! I don't think I ever found as nany beautiful thoughts in any one book.

George Madden Martin, author of "March On." Comes like a breath of cool pure air amid so much that is dry and arid. It is the other side of Main Street. The New York World

Marie Conway Oemier, author of "Slippy MoGhee." Like a whiff of clover and a cool breeze on a hot day. I am sure Father de Rance would have adored Abbe Pierre. Eleanor Gates Author: of "The Rich Little Poor Boy," After many books which have been trum-peted as "works of art," "inspiration," Abbe Pierre comes as a relief, a bouquet. The New York Herald The charm of the book is very real.

His old Abbe is a "creation" it is pure sentiment, but never sentimentality a book that one will dip into again and again group of the sentimentality of the sentimentality is groundly enlightening, comfortably warm.
