

Local and General

22 cattle on Sir William Van Horne's stock farm were killed last week by order of the Government Veterinary Department, as being infected with tuberculosis.

Your Typewriter Machine. If it sticks, let us fix it; if it breaks let us remake it for you; if it is out of date, let us quote you a rate for a new one, either a Remington or a Smith Premier.

A. Milne Fraser, Halifax, N. S.

RECENT GUESTS AT KENNEDY'S HOTEL

St. John, N. B.—D. D. Porter, W. R. Watson, W. A. Lockhart, W. H. Smith, Geo. McConnell, T. B. Shedden, W. E. Long, A. J. Grass.

Moncton.—R. W. Hume, Montreal.—R. A. Miller, J. M. Steen, Halifax.—A. E. Jamieson.

Campobello.—Harry Jackson, St. Stephen.—W. R. Wilson, R. J. Nixon, F. Richardson, St. George.—Henry Meating, Ira A. McConnell.

The Ninth Game in the Bowling League was rolled on Stinson's Alley on Tuesday evening, Feb. 2, between the Tipperaries and Algonquins, and resulted in favour of the former Club. Three points to one by the following score:

Table with columns: Names, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, Total Average. Rows include Tipperaries and Algonquins.

The Tenth Game in the series was rolled on Friday evening, Feb. 5, between the Montreal and Damfinoes, and resulted in each Club taking 2 points by the following score:

Table with columns: Names, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, Total Average. Rows include Montreal and Damfinoes.

The Eleventh game in the League Series was rolled on Monday evening, Feb. 8, between the Algonquins and Damfinoes, and resulted in the former taking 3 points by the following score:

Table with columns: Names, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, Total Average. Rows include Algonquins and Damfinoes.

Standing of the League to date

Table with columns: Names, Games Played, Points Won. Rows include Montreal, Algonquins, Tipperaries, Damfinoes.

Trouble shakes you, hold on vaster, Never spell the word disaster.

Take your rain 'n' take your sunn'n'; Kape your mouth shut when you're runn'n'; Talk 'n' talk, an' done 'em done, Braggart's not your mother's son.

John Galsworthy, The Devon Sage.

GRANT OF ST. STEPHEN

Is offering the balance of his whole stock of Ladies' Coats at Half Price.

$25 Coat for $12.50

20 " " 10

10 " " 5

We must clear every coat in our showroom at once. This price will do it.

C. C. GRANT ST. STEPHEN

Minna's Liniment Cures Colds, Etc.

Social and Personal

Mr. Fred McLaughlin, employed at Sir William Van Horne's stock farm, fell from a load of ice while crossing the bar last Friday and sustained internal injuries. He was taken to Chipman Hospital, St. Stephen, on Tuesday for treatment.

Private James McDowell, of the 26th Battalion, returned to St. John on Friday after spending a few days at his home here.

Marshall Gibson, of St. Stephen, paid a business trip to town on Saturday.

Colin E. Hewitt went to Boston via C. P. R., on Tuesday night for an extended visit.

Friday evening Miss Broad gave a movie party, and afterwards entertained very pleasantly at her home, Mrs. Geo. E. Smith, Miss Amelia Kennedy, Mrs. Barnard and Mrs. E. A. Cockburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Shier Johnson were completely taken by surprise on Monday night last, when about 50 of their friends drove out to their home on Senator May's farm in big teams to remind them of the tenth anniversary of their wedding. Tinsware of all descriptions was presented to them, after which dancing and cards were indulged in. Refreshments were served at midnight, and the happy gathering broke up about 2 a. m.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the winter was the thimble party given by Mrs. F. P. McColl on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Kathleen Cockburn gave two charming readings, "A Fairy Romance" and "The death of Hiawatha." The hostess sang several songs, which were listened to with delight by her guests.

At the tea hour Mrs. F. P. Barnard presided in the dining-room, assisted by Mrs. R. A. Stuart, and Miss K. Cockburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Mason are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on February 1.

Miss Marjorie Clarke was the guest of Mrs. George J. Clarke in St. Stephen last week.

The many friends of Mrs. George Hubbard will be pleased to hear that she is now recovering from her recent illness.

Miss Margaret Regan is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Fred Andrews entertained at the Anchorage on Thursday afternoon at a thimble party and tea. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Annie Gifford, Mrs. Lee Street, Miss Jessie Main and Miss Ottie Smith. Miss Minnie Kay presided at the tea table. Prizes were won in a guessing contest, by Miss Annie Richardson and Miss Adeline Kerr.

Miss Midge Rigby has returned from a visit with friends in St. John.

Mrs. E. A. Cockburn gave a much enjoyed auction bridge on Thursday evening. The prize was won by Mrs. George Elliott. Refreshments were served in the dining-room at the close of a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Harold Glew gave a public dance in Paul's Hall, on Thursday evening.

The evening service at All Saint's Church on Sunday was omitted on account of the illness of the rector.

The Rev. Robert Johnson, M. A., minister of the Park Street Church, Halifax, preached in Greenwood Church, at St. George and Beaver Harbour. We shall print it next week.

Rev. William Fraser pastor of Greenwood Church, is in Halifax undergoing treatment for his throat.

Miss Kathleen Cockburn went to St. Stephen on Thursday last, returning again on Friday.

The Misses Phyllis Cockburn and Dorothy Lamb gave a drive to Chamcook Lake, on Thursday evening last, to about thirty young people. Mrs. Vernon Lamb and Mrs. Earl Brown were the chaperones.

Mrs. George Elliott entertained most delightfully at a thimble party on Friday afternoon at the Rectory. At the tea hour Mrs. George Smith presided and Mrs. E. A. Cockburn served the loaves, assisted by Miss Gwendolyn Jack.

Miss Amelia Kennedy entertained very agreeably on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Vernon Lamb, Camrose. Miss Ethel Richardson won the prize in a guessing contest and Mrs. R. A. Stuart, Jr., and Miss Carolyn Rigby won the whist prizes.

Mrs. T. McCracken has returned home from a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Elliott, in Calais, Me.

Sir Thomas and Lady Shaughnessy returned from New York yesterday morning—Monday, Feb. 8.

The Revd. Thomas Harrison of St. George, who has been suffering from a serious illness for some ten weeks, is now recovered and able to resume his pastoral duties.

Mrs. Joseph Handy was hostess on Thursday evening at a much enjoyed ladies whist of six tables. The prizes were won by Mrs. Warren Stinson, Mrs. R. A. Tennant and Mrs. A. B. O'Neill. Those present were: Mrs. Emma Hewitt, Mrs. S. Shaughnessy, Mrs. W. H. Hawthorne, Mrs. Thomas Parsley, Mrs. A. B. O'Neill, Mrs. R. A. Tennant, Mrs. Ed. Ward, Mrs. John Cropley, Mrs. D. G. Hanson, Mrs. Warren Stinson, Mrs. Herbert McCracken, Mrs. C. E. DeWolf, the Misses Ethel Richardson, Margaret Burton, Gertrude Stinson, Emily Donahue, Edith Hewitt, Jennie Howe, Sara McCaffrey, Ruth Greenlaw, Mattie Mallock and Leora Stinson.

Mrs. W. F. Flinder entertained the members of the ladies circle of the Presbyterian church at Bonobon on Thursday afternoon. There was a large gathering of ladies present and some excellent musical selections were rendered during the afternoon. Tea was served at 5.30, after which there was more music; and at a late hour the ladies departed for their respective homes.

Mrs. W. F. Flinder's Maid, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Holt, and was united in matrimony to Mr. Flinder, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flinder. The wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents on Monday last, and was attended by a large number of the happy couple were recipients of many valuable and useful presents including cut glass, silver, linen, etc.

The following were present at the wedding—Mr. and Mrs. Angus Holt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flinder and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. David Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holt, Miss Alice Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Flinder, Messrs. Albert Flinder, Randall Flinder, Bonoboc, and Cecil Whelpley, and Ernest Guldrey, of Eastport, Me.

Minna's Liniment Cures Colds, Etc.

C. C. GRANT ST. STEPHEN

Up-River Doings

St. Stephen, Feb. 8.—Mrs. E. Vincent Sullivan held her first reception since her marriage on Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Rose avenue.

Miss Lelia McVey was hostess to the Thursday evening bridge club last week, when Miss Mildred Todd was winner of Spruce Ladies' prize, and Mr. J. J. Doane, the gentlemen's prize.

Miss Lelia Murchie is in Fredericton, visiting her friend, Miss Jean Van Buskirk.

Mr. W. L. Algar visited Bangor during the week.

Mrs. William Berryman, who has been making an extended visit with friends in Boston and vicinity, has arrived home.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Goucher went to St. John on Friday to visit their son Arthur, who is one of the soldiers in the 26th Battalion.

Mrs. Page of Halifax, is the guest of her sister, Miss Alma Sullivan.

Mrs. Parker Grimmer recently visited her son, Mrs. Verena Grimmer, of the 26th Battalion, in St. John.

Mr. Frederick M. Murchie has recovered from his illness and is now seen daily on the street. Mrs. Murchie is quite well and confined to her home, much to the regret of her friends.

Mrs. Walter J. Gilbert will be at home to her friends on Tuesday afternoon and evening, at her apartments at the St. Croix hotel.

Mr. T. R. Kent of St. George, has been a recent guest of Dr. Frank L. Blair.

Mr. Henry B. Eaton, with his usual generosity, entertained the members of the St. Croix chorus at Redmen's Hall one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eaton have returned from Montreal.

Miss Addie McVey is visiting St. John friends this week.

Mrs. Branscombe and Miss Violet Perry, returned from a brief visit at Coda, Ven. Archdeacon Newham, secretary of the Diocesan Synod, and Rev. W. T. Tunall, returned from St. John where they had attended the annual meeting of the Synod.

The entertainment given in the Bijou theatre Sunday evening, Feb. 3, under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club, was one of the greatest successes ever given here.

The musical part of the program was much appreciated by the large audience present, and the amusing comedy "How the Strong Grew" was so well put on it drew rounds of applause. The credit of the comedy is all due to the ability of Mrs. J. D. Lawson, who not only took a prominent part in the representation but directed and arranged for the other ladies, who acquitted themselves so well in their respective parts. The proceeds are for the Belgian Relief Fund and amounted to $175.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are arranging to give one of their church suppers in Elder Memorial Hall on February 15.

The Wa-Wa Club were entertained at a home on Wednesday evening last at the home of Miss Pearl Murchie.

Miss Emma Veale most pleasantly entertained the Teacher's Literary Club at her home on Monday evening.

Mayor Grimmer has had a room set apart in the building occupied by the town officials as a private office for himself, where he will receive on Wednesday evening anyone who wishes for information or to talk over town affairs.

After an illness of several weeks, John Keyes passed away on Sunday at the home of his brother, Mr. Edward Keyes. He was a member of the firm of Keyes Bros., heavy stable proprietors, and a most highly respected. The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon.

RECEIVED YESTERDAY TOO LATE FOR INSERTION IN THIS ISSUE CORRESPONDENCE FROM ST. GEORGE AND BEAVER HARBOR. WE SHALL PRINT IT NEXT WEEK.

QUEBEC GETS ORDER FOR RIFLES FROM RUSSIA

The Ross Rifle factory of Quebec will be awarded by Russia a contract for three million rifles at a cost of from forty to fifty million dollars and for the execution of which the company will have to bring from Europe 1,200 experts and to enlarge its establishment to such an extent that its capacity be increased threefold.

The Ross Rifle has had already very large contracts from the Canadian and British Governments but this contract is one of the largest ever awarded to a Canadian industry of any kind. The work is to be completed in two years.

ECONOMY

McTavish (to a convalescent soldier). "I was hearin' 'ye had a bullet in ye yet. Are ye no gawn to ha'e it ten o'et?"

Soldier. "No the noo. Ye see, I'll be gawn back ta'e the f'r-front in a wee while, an' when I come back I'll j'ust ha'e them a'oot t'gether!" — Punch.

DIED

GREEN.—At McAdam Junction, on the 3rd inst., George Green, in the 57th year of his age, leaving his wife and two daughters to mourn.

OBITUARY

GEORGE GREEN

Many friends throughout the province will be shocked to learn of the death of George Green, of the Canadian customs staff at McAdam Junction, at his home at McAdam, Wednesday evening, Feb. 3, after a brief illness from pneumonia. Mr. Green had been a resident of McAdam for many years, having been an agent of the old New Brunswick Railway before his appointment to the customs, and was greatly respected. He was 57 years of age, and as he had always enjoyed the best of health his death after an illness of only a few days comes as a great shock. He was a Mason, a Forester and an Odd-fellow and very popular with the travelling public. He is survived, by his wife, who is a daughter of Stipendiary Magistrate Luke Lawson, of McAdam, and two daughters, Miss Ruth, of the McAdam school teaching staff, and Miss Helen, at home.—Telegraph.

SARAH A. COTTER

After an illness of four years which she bore with most Christian fortitude and without complaint, Sarah Cotter, of St. Stephen, passed away on Wednesday last. She was forty-five years of age, and was much esteemed by all who knew her. She was a devoted member of Christ Church, a Sunday school teacher and a member of the choir for many years. The funeral service was held from her home at 2.30 on Friday afternoon, and was conducted by Rev. Edward Hand, of St. Anne's Church, Calais, in the absence of Ven. Archdeacon Newham, of Christ Church, who was in St. John. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Samuel A. McBride, Herbert Maxwell, George Topping and James Brown. The interment was in the rural cemetery.

R. A. STUART, Sheriff of Charlotte. Sheriff's Office, St. Andrews, N. B. January 21st, 1915.

BOY WANTED

At Kennedy's Hotel. Good Wages. Apply at once. A. KENNEDY.

Feb. 9 1915

TO LET

That well known property Linden Grange (furnished) at St. Andrews, N. B., nearly three acres in extent. The residence of Lady Dilley. Apply to L. P. D. TILLEY, Barrister, St. John's new Brunswick.

HORSE FOR SALE

Black horse, perfectly sound; weight about 1,000 pounds. To be sold at a bargain. Apply to ALBERT GALLEY, Wilson's Beach, N. B.

FOR SALE

SCHOONER "JENNIE LOGAN," equipped with 24 h.p. motor, capacity about 40 hhds. of fish. All in good order and condition. For terms of sale apply to THOMAS LORD, 18 St. Lambertville, D. I.

FOR SALE

25 H. P. Studebaker Roadster, Model '15. New in July, 1913. This car has had the best of care and has only been run 5,000 miles. Tires all new this season. For particulars and price, address R. M. KIRKIN, P. O. Box 382, St. Andrews.

SHERIFF'S SALE

There will be sold at Public Auction, at the Court House, at St. Andrews, in the County of Charlotte, on Wednesday, the Twenty-fourth day of March, 1915, at the hour of Two of the Clock, in the afternoon:

All the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever either at Law or in Equity, which Eustace Church, of the Town of Milltown, in the County of Charlotte, had on the 27th day of March, 1914, or has now, or to or in the following described land and premises and appurtenances, situate, lying and being in Milltown, in the Parish of St. Stephen, in the County of Charlotte aforesaid, and more fully described as follows:

All that certain lot of land and premises situate in the said Town of Milltown, known as the Brice lot, and bounded and described as follows, to wit: Commencing at an iron stake on the south side of Water Street in said Town, at a point where said Water Street intersects said Water Street; thence running in a Southeasterly direction until it reaches the corner of the said Town, at a point marked by an iron stake, a distance of thirty-one and a half feet; thence running in a Southerly direction along the line of said Main Street a distance of forty feet on an iron stake placed in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building, a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land near the Upper Bridge, so called, in Milltown, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land near the Upper Bridge, so called, in Milltown, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on a fence about 3 feet north of Charles McDonald's manure shed, and running on McDonald's line 60 feet more or less to the River in a southerly direction; thence along the river east fifty-six feet more or less to a stake on the south side of the road in a line midway between the building now occupied by one Charles McDonald and the Brice Building a distance of twenty-eight and a half feet until it reaches the corner of the said Town; thence running in a Westerly direction a distance of thirty-four feet until it strikes an iron stake placed twelve feet from the lines line, so called; thence in a Northerly direction a distance of sixteen feet to the road leading to the Curran lot, thence along the said road in a Northerly direction to a place of beginning. Deed from McDonald to Eustace Church dated March 6, 1888; Regd. May 29, 1888, Book 41, page 9.

A certain lot or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Town of Milltown twenty-four hundred and thirty-eight feet, and