Give hair will return to its pristine brilliancy—weak bair become strongand vigorous, and the skin take a proper and healthy action by the use of the itsestimable Hyperion. As an article for giving softness to the beir, and a brilliant gloss, it cannot by any compound be equalled.

The following is from the New York Evening Mirror, May 25, 1849:"WINTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.-WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,— Among all the Panacesa advertised for the cure of human alments, there is none in which we have more considence than 'Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.' We regard it as one of Nature's own preparations—simple, safe, pleasant to take, and simost certain to cure all billious and pulmonary affections. We have witnessed its wonderful effects in cases that were regarded as inspectionally desperate, and we can conscientiously recommend it as one of the text medicines in the world,"
