Mr. W. G. Cogswell in leaving Sheffield Mills was presented by the members of his Sabbath School class with a Bible, accompanied with the following ADDRESS

Mr. W. G. Cogswell.
Dear Teacher.—The members of the Sabbath School Class of which you have been the teacher, wishing to show their appreciation of the uniform kindness with which you have always discharged the duties of teacher—the good advice and hearty and sincere good wishes for our prosperity, and we hope as you go out from among us that your good deeds may follow you, and that you will receive additional good and faith from the assurance that you possess the esteem and love of every scholar in this class.
Signed by the twenty-two members of the class.
My Dear Sabbath School Scholars,—It is with unfeigned pleasure that I ask you to accept my warm and sincere thanks for the very handsome Bible and affectionate address with which you have been pleased to surprise me. The former I shall prize very highly both for its intrinsic value and as a token of your

POLLY'S NEW SHOES.
You'd know by the way she goes creaking about,
Peering down from all possible views
At the two little feet thrust complacently out,
That Polly has on her new shoes.

They are neat, they are gay, they are buttoned up high,
And they're lined in a brilliant blue tint.

They're bright as the stars twinkling up
in the sky,
Or a penny just out of the mint.

But it isn't for that she's so happy and glad,
It's the about made to speak,
It's because they give out such a charmingly low, low, low squeak.
Such a perfectly beautiful squeak.

FOR FIVE YEARS.
For any case of nervousness, sleeplessness, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspep-
