RANCHER FROZEN
Rancher Loses His Life By Being Frozen to Death—Heavy Loss of Sheep and Cattle.
 Maple Creek, Oct. 24.—Harry Martin of Martin Bros., sheep rancher, while out with the sheep got lost and was frozen to death, 15 miles west of here today, and quite a number of sheep were lost. Ivey Wilson, north of town, a sheepman, lost 3,500 sheep. A storm drove them into a lake near his ranch. They were valued at ten thousand dollars. Tom Kerr lost 500 head of sheep in the storm. All the trains were blocked east of here for two days and have just arrived.

DROWNED IN A SLOUGH
 Fillmore, Sask., Oct. 27.—Andrew Thompson, a well to do farmer, living at Stonybrook, was found drowned about thirteen miles northeast this morning about 8 o'clock. The deceased had brought his brother in here yesterday to go to Winnipeg and left about four o'clock for home. The last seen of him was when he called at Mr. Lane's at Huronville, about nine o'clock, and left for home. This morning Mr. Lane saw the horses in the slough and after hunting around found Mr. Thompson lying in the water. The general supposition is that he drove his horses into the water and that they got down, and in attempting to release them he must have been knocked down and trampled on. The authorities have taken charge of the affair and wired his brother.

FARMER FOUND DEAD
 Walseley, Sask., Oct. 27.—Ernest Souchotte, a farmer living seven miles south of Montmartre, was found dead in his house yesterday morning by his brother. Death was due to a gunshot wound. Everything points to a case of deliberate suicide. A double barreled gun by his side had both barrels empty and a letter on the table contained the statement that deceased was tired of life and had decided to end it. The dead man who was about 38 years old, lived with his brother, Emil, and the latter had gone to church at Montmartre on the preceding day, only returning home that morning.

RANCHER FROZEN

Money Used Freely
 Brockville, Ont., Oct. 26.—Several arrests were made today in connection with the elections. Victor Teaford, who claims to be a Montreal sleuth on the staff of the Thiel agency, was taken in at 3 a.m. on a charge of forgery.
 This was done simply for the purpose of holding him on accusations of electoral corruption. In the court he changed his name to Quinn and said he was sent here to keep an eye on election matters without regard to party. The Conservatives claim to have evidence connecting him with the Liberal machine.
 P. Brady of Smith Falls and Don McLennan of Picton, were challenged and sworn. Immediately afterwards they were locked up on charges of perjury. John A. Derbyshire was served with a summons to appear on the 31st on a charge of bribery. He is a son of Dan Derbyshire and was the victim of a trap laid in the polling sub-division of Westward.
 The Tories allege money was used wholesale reaching the purchasable element through the postoffice.
