"AND THE DAYS GO ROLLING BY"

This is the 16th day since The Planet first published A.M. McCol's definitely expressed opinion of the Ross Government. AND HE HAS NOT DENIED IT.

THE DEFIANCE BY-LAW

The ratepayers of Chatham will do well to one and all turn out and support the passing of the Defiance Iron Works Company's by-law on January 2nd next.

The establishment of this large and important industry here will be of immense value and advantage to the Maple City. These are the kind of factories that develop a city, giving work to scores of men, bringing business to our community and advertising its commercial enterprise.

Industries beget industries and Chatham's future is already bright. Let us all hasten the good work of civic upbuilding by turning out legally to support this splendid by-law.

"LIVING BY HIS WITS"

The open letter of Rev. Donald C. Hossock, the well-known Presbyterian minister who was graduated in the school of Old Liberalism, is a potent and fearless indictment of political wrong-doing that will appeal to the heart of every honest and patriotic Canadian.

The people will await with manifest interest any reply Premier Ross may have to the indictment.

The Planet will present to its readers in its coming Saturday issue the full text of Rev. Donald Hossock's letter to Mr. Ross, with any response that may be forthcoming from the man whom the minister so aptly describes as politically "living by his wits."

SACHEL OF THE SATELLITE

My friend, Rud. Kipling, wanted to write this. I wouldn't let him. You've hollered long for Whittsey.

And spouted purity, And the old machine you've busted—with your mouth. Just mark your vote for Clancy—And see you get him in—That's the way to show old Ross he's "Ordered South."

You're an absent minded beggar not to heed your country's call—Remember Ross! No promises can bind him. If you put him into power again, I'll mean another haul For the Vanoces and the Sullivan behind him.

Friday is market day.

Then comes Christmas to take all your money. . . . Geo. Stephens can tell Archie how it will all happen.

Christmas will get your money if you don't watch out.

People don't seem to realize how close Christmas really is.

Times are getting hard. Even today was a little short.

Has anybody been greased? No coal been weighed this season.

Come what will, E. E. Parrett will struggle in at the death-feast.

To-day was the shortest day in the year, but I don't think that will hurt my pay any.

Jim McGregor and R. S. Dunlop are dandy sleuths. You see no more burglaries any more.

You can get that big turkey you're looking for very cheap, if you'll go to market on Friday.

The burglars didn't stay scared long enough, but they kept off the beats of the new sleuths.

After all, the alleged editorial column of the local Ross organette is an appropriate place for fables.

And the Rev. Donald C. Hossock says that Ross has been "living by his wits." No wonder his living was precarious.

I see that Irish Jack is going to nominate Hon. G. W. Ross for East Kent. I always said Jack wanted somebody pliable.

I wonder if the distinguished newspaper men who write for this column will stop now that the Banner has given them away?

I've been wondering if that temperance candidate whom I met Jack going to run in East Kent is the Rev. Constable Brown.

I am not afraid of Christmas getting my money. It's the other fellow I'm afraid of. He is liable to hold a straight flush.

What the Ross organ said last night. Quite earned the ripened egg. Its "arguments" are "out of a sight." Their "meaning" is so vague.

The police commissioners thought that if they couldn't catch the burglars they could scare them off. That's why the new cops were appointed.

It was real . . . of the Banner sleuth to let out on me. I was perfectly willing that Stead and the rest should travel on my reputation.

Did you ever notice the expression on the intelligent elector's countenance when the misleading name of the Ross organette is mentioned?

I like to read the little empty inanities which crowd the alleged editorial page of the local Ross organette. They make me feel how much worse off I might be if I only tried.

Some idea of the power of Irish Jack can be realized from the fact, according to his own statement, that he doesn't know more than 75 voters in East Kent, yet he could pull off John Howat.

That the Satellite doesn't write his own ideas is a powerful argument why people should vote for Archie McCoig. This is the local organette's chief argument and it's a clincher.

At the sale of the Ross bootlers Archie will declare with the great Dr. Johnson, "Sir, we are not disposing of a few pots and pans, but the potentialities of great riches beyond the dreams of avarice."

The granolith sidewalk on the south side of Lacroix street, from the C. P. R. track to Grey street, is the slipperiest place in town. They say that the wicked stand in slippery places. I'd advise only the wicked to walk on that sidewalk.

Now that the Banner has found me out, I might as well confess. I won't deny that Chas. A. Dana, Arthur Brisbane, Joseph Pulitzer, W. T. Stead, and Alfred Harmsworth really do edit this column. It was horribly mean of the Banner to give me away, but I suppose all's fair in politics and war.

Mrs. A. L. Fowler, of Toronto, formerly Miss M. Shea, is visiting her father on Elizabeth street. A great many friends called on the young bride yesterday to welcome her back and wish Mr. and Mrs. Fowler a happy married life.

FINE CONCERT

A very largely attended concert was held at Shreve's School House, 5th Con. Raleigh, on Monday evening being the annual Christmas entertainment of the Sunday School. Mr. H. S. Clements, M. P., occupied the chair in his usual cheering manner. A number of the city went out to take part in the program, among whom were Messrs. Hallman and F. Snider, and Miss Clara Jordan and little Miss Viola Marshall, the accomplished pianist daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marshall, whose numbers were especially liked. Great credit is due to Miss Pansy Manna for the manner in which she has trained the children in their drill and choruses. All the numbers of the program seemed to meet with approval from the large audience.

At the conclusion of the program, presents were distributed to the children, after which the evening closed with God Save the King.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR CROUP.

(From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.)

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive-grass, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by All Druggists.

TILBURY

Dec. 21.—County Councillor Robinson has withdrawn from the fight in this district, which leaves the field to County Councillor Ross, Beave Campbell and ex-Reeve Wilson, all of Tilbury East, and Byron Robinson, all of Romney, six in all.

Mrs. Chas. Powell leaves this week on a fortnight's visit with her sister, Mrs. Gimes, of Durand, Mich.

Mrs. (Dr.) Brush, of Crosswell, Mich., is expected here to-morrow on a visit with her daughter, Miss Sheek.

Henry Bendet left yesterday for Hensall to attend the funeral of Mr. Hagen.

Mr. Prouse, an evangelist of Detroit, Mich., will sing in the Methodist church at the Christmas services next Sunday.

P. A. Gahan, of Romney, will address the Young People's Anglican Union here next Tuesday evening on "Byron."

It is expected that Councillor Clark, of Tilbury East, will secure the re-election of that township next Monday by acclamation, owing to the withdrawal of Reeve Campbell to run for County Councillor.

The rink is open nightly for skaters.

Tilbury has a bowling alley.

Now that the Banner has found me out, I might as well confess. I won't deny that Chas. A. Dana, Arthur Brisbane, Joseph Pulitzer, W. T. Stead, and Alfred Harmsworth really do edit this column. It was horribly mean of the Banner to give me away, but I suppose all's fair in politics and war.

Mrs. A. L. Fowler, of Toronto, formerly Miss M. Shea, is visiting her father on Elizabeth street. A great many friends called on the young bride yesterday to welcome her back and wish Mr. and Mrs. Fowler a happy married life.
