Young Man Gets In Trouble Over Postal Chaque - Wallaceburg News

(F.rom Our Own Correspondent.)

Wallaceburg, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Campbell, of Marine City, daughter of Mr.
Peole, of this place, was taken back to her home a few days ago. Her father sent a postal order to Revell in Dunkirk, N. Y., to pay his daughter's railroad fare. It reached there after he and Mrs. Campbell left for St. Thomas, so the Chief of Police in Dunkirk was notified and the order was found opened in the boardwas found opened in the boardties have written to Washington and have also written Mr. Poole that the money will be refunded.
