THE ACADIAN. WOLFFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 9, 1885

Local and Provincial. The rain of Tuesday night and Wednesday have been beneficial in filling up the wells.

Now is the time to get your pictures framed. Rockwell & Co. are doing them cheaper than ever.

In our notice of change of Boston Windsor, we should have said "New Brunswick," instead of "Dominion."

Oxford Grey Yarn at Caldwell & Murray's. We have received from Mr. A. K. Bars a copy of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat for which we tender thanks.

Rockwell & Co's is the cheapest place to buy your School Books and School Supplies.

Presbyterian service will be held in the Baptist church next Sabbath, when Rev. T. A. Nelson, of Windsor, will occupy the pulpit.

JUST RECEIVED.—2000 Choice Imported and Domestic Cigars, for sale low, J. M. Shaw.

The Presbyterian Church is now on the site intended and looks very well. It has been decided to raise it up and put a story below.

In another column will be found the adv. of C. H. Borden. Purchasers of goods in his line will do well to inspect his beautiful stock which is very complete.

Timber, Shingles and Bricks for sale low at S. R. Sleep's.

We are pleased to see that C. W. Knowles, Esq., formerly publisher of the Windsor Mail, has been elected a Councillor for the town of Windsor, without opposition.

We will send the ACADIAN from now until the end of the year for 25c. in advance. Try it!

We direct attention to the adv. of the assignee's sale of the late firm of F. L. Brown & Co. This is a rare chance to get bargains and should be taken advantage of.

We are pleased to see the Wolfville, N. S., ACADIAN getting better each issue. Its enterprising editors deserve the hearty support of the people of Wolfville.—Albert (N. B.) Maple Leaf.

Ladies will do well to inspect Caldwell & Murray's stock of Mantle Cloths before purchasing elsewhere.

A letter from Mr. S. L. Walker, who graduated at Acadia last June, informs us that he is attending the Medical college in connection with McGill University, Montreal. We wish him every success in his studies.

LOST.—Between Grand Pre and Wolfville by the subscriber, on his way to Rockwell & Co's Bookstore, a pair of Crown Pictures. The finder will confer a favor by leaving them at the above establishment as soon as possible, in order to derive the benefit of the extra low price as advertised.

Special Harvest Thanksgiving Services were held at St. John's church on Sunday last. The morning service was devoted to the scholars of the Sunday school, the most pleasing feature of our morning worship being the singing of hymns and chants by the children who formed the choir on that occasion. We retired from church in gratitude to the Lord of Harvest.

The Celebrated Electric Dyes are the most lasting of all colors. Warranted strictly pure. 10 cents at Druggists and Grocers.

Local and Provincial. See our special offer to send the ACADIAN and Detroit Free Press for four months for 40 cents.

Room Paper at cost at Western Book & News Co's.

LOST.—Mrs. Judson Harris lost a valuable cow a few days ago. It was chocked by a potato.

Buy Rockwell & Co's 5c Scribbling Books (two sizes), got up expressly for students' use.

Large potatoes are the rage just now, and we expect by next issue to have some big ones to tell about. The largest we have been shown as yet have weighed about two pounds.

WANTED.—One thousand yards Sheeps' Gray All-wool Homespun; must be clean and soft wool, and well woven. Caldwell & Murray, Wolfville, Sep. 29, '85.

J. I. Brown's colt, "Confidential Charley," took first prize in the four-year-old race at the Kentville Driving Park last week. The prize was a fine track-harness, offered by our townsman, C. A. Patriquin.

J. W. Bars, Esq., brought into our office a few days ago, a fine large English strawberry, grown in the open air in his garden, and looking fresh and healthy in spite of the severe frost of the past few weeks.

PERSONAL.—Rev. R. D. Ross left on Monday to attend the Presbyterian Senate, at St. John, N. B., in session this week.—Mr. S. R. Sleep has been on a visit to Boston for a few weeks. He returned on Monday.

If you wish to color wool, cotton silk or feathers, use the new Electric Dyes, Strongest and Best in the world. 10 cents at all dealers.

ANOTHER.—We are informed that the J. A. Cogswell, who was drowned a short time ago in Massachusetts, of whom we mentioned a few weeks ago was not the "Joe" Cogswell known in this county, who is still alive and well. His many friends and acquaintances will be pleased to learn this.

NEW PAPER.—As we are going to press we receive a copy of a new farm journal called the Rural Home, published at Kentville by John Bryanton. It has 16 pages and is published monthly for the small sum of 50 cents per annum. Its first issue is well filled, looks well, and should receive a liberal patronage. We wish it every success.

250 Fine Envelopes for 25 cents at Western Book & News Co's.

The officers of the Evangeline Division, S. of T., at Grand Pre, for the present quarter, have been handed in for publication. They are as follows:—W. P., J. O. Harris; W. A., Miss Alice Denison; R. S., Avery Bower; A. R. S., Miss Annie Denison; F. S., Dr. Henry Chipman; Treas., Capt. C. H. Curry; Chap., Rev. W. C. Brown; Cond., Martin Duncanson; A. C., Miss Annie Randall; I. S., W. D. Fullerton; O. S., Elias Eagles; P. W. P., Miss Annie Harris; organist, Mrs. A. R. Curry.

FINE HARNESS.—Mr. C. A. Patriquin has the harness, which he exhibited last week, and which took first prize, exhibited on a block horse in his show room. It is a fine piece of work, and reflects great credit on Mr. P. and Wolfville as well. Mr. Patriquin is a young man who by perseverance and close attention to business has worked up a large trade, and is now able, as shown last week, to compete successfully with the Province. We are pleased to see that in the future people will not have to go from King's Co. or Wolfville to get their harnesses, and we would advise everybody interested in this branch of industry to call and inspect it before somebody purchases as it is not often such harnesses are seen. We believe the price wanted for it is $75.00, and we should think it cheap at that.
