Dr. Cutten is endeavoring to compile the files of maritime almanacs such as Bickley's Farmers' Almanac, Barnes' New Brunswick Almanac and Macmillan's Almanac for the College library. Any of our readers having copies of these publications living uselessly about their attics will confer a favor upon the University by communicating with Dr. Cutten.

A very sad accident occurred at Grand Falls on Wednesday afternoon resulting in the death of Mr. Arthur Buchanan, of that place. Mr. Buchanan was at work on the roads and while backing his team into the gravel pit was jolted from the wagon and fell breaking his neck, dying almost instantly. He leaves a widow, an aged mother and other relatives. Mrs. Hennessey, of Wolfville, is a sister. The funeral will take place to-day.

There are few people who can sincerely and pleasantly entertain an audience for an entire evening, and Miss Bowley is among that few. Her program has variety enough to please the most discriminating.

Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, of Bermuda, who has been attending the Methodist Conference, is in the City, and is being warmly welcomed by many friends. He will spend the next few days in Wolfville and will sail from New York, on July 17th, to return to Bermuda. Mr. Hemmeon has achieved a high reputation as a preacher and a successful minister, and his friends hope that his return to Canada will not be long delayed.—Halifax Morning Chronicle.

Monday, 8 p. m.

Alfred, Fred and Harry Graves, of Town Plot, were arraigned before Stipendiary Dickey, at Kentville, on Tuesday afternoon, charged with assault upon the person of the late H. Kenneth Lee, and were remanded until yesterday. Immediately after H. H. Wick was sworn prosecutor, against out warrants for their arrest charging them with the murder of Mr. Lee and with assault upon the person of Mrs. Lee. The accused were not asked to plead to either charge but were remanded. The preliminary hearing on the charge of murder was set down for yesterday, while that of the assault has been set for noon on July 9th.

Miss Bowley becomes an completely the person she represents and the audience she represents that the sooner does not think of her at all. Her rendering of 'Somebody in Love' and 'Gilt Cupid' has been noticed.

There was a very slim attendance at the meeting in Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Kings County Farmers' Association. Mr. John A. Caldwell was called to the chair and very interesting and instructive addresses were given by Mr. McNeill, of the Experimental Station at Ottawa, and Mr. A. R. McMahon, of Aylesford. The important subject of co-operation was discussed from all its bearings and much valuable information given concerning the United Fruit Company. A number of those present asked questions and made suggestions. The outcome will probably be the formation of a farmers' shipping company here.

Wolville and Lorne Terrace Compete at Tennis.

An interesting tennis tournament between Wolville and Lorne Terrace (of Halifax) was played on the courts of the former club on Monday, July 1st. The result was a victory for the Wolville players who won six out of the nine events played. The players, however, were evenly matched and the contests were close and exciting. Mr. Jack LeMotte, of Halifax, showed the best form. At five o'clock tea was served on the grounds. The hostesses were Mrs. Chute, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Eaton and Miss Pitt, and a pleasant social hour was spent. Don't forget the tennis entertainment to-night.

Travis-DeWoll.

On June 28th, in Olivet Baptist Church, Winnipeg, the marriage of Miss Constance DeWoll and Rev. William F. Travis took place. Rev. Robert McCaul, pastor of the church, officiating.

The bride looked very pretty in her suit of cream serge and becoming picture hat of cream straw with ostrich plume. Her shower bouquet was of white and pink carnations.

The wedding was a very quiet one and among those present were Miss Isabella Wilkies and Master Cecil Higgins, who are making their home in Viking. The following day Mr. and Mrs. Travis left for Viking, Alberta, where Mr. Travis edits 'The Viking Weekly Gazette' in addition to his church work.

There were many beautiful presents received before leaving Windsor, and from friends in the West.

The home friends join with the journal in hearty good wishes for a long and happy married life in their Western home.—Hants Journal.

Marriage of a Hantsport Pastor.

The home of Mrs. R. M. Bailey, Gibson, N. B., was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday, June 26th, at 5 p. m., when her daughter, Julia E., was united in marriage to Rev. Waldo C. Machum, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Machum, St. Mary's. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Jenkins in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Ford S. Bailey, was attended by Miss Louise Allen as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Mr. Arthur Bailey, brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Machum left last evening for a short trip through the province. On their return they will spend a few weeks with relatives here, after which they will leave for Hantsport, N. B., where Mr. Machum is pastor of the Baptist Church.—Ex.

In the 'Soldier of the King,' which the Colonial Stock Company are presenting in the Opera House, on Monday evening next, will be found some of the most stirring incidents, seen here for some time, dealing with the theft of Government plans by a German spy, and for which an English officer is wrongly accused, and drummed out of the Army. This promises to be one of the most successful plays the Colonials have ever produced here, and their many friends will no doubt turn out in good numbers on Monday evening.

The Boy Scouts.

Monday, July 1st, was spent at Starr's Point, and one of the best outings yet was enjoyed by about 25 boys.

Three teams left the club room soon after eight o'clock, a. m., arriving at the Point in time to have some good games and contests before dinner.

Promptly at one o'clock all went in swimming. Those who could not swim did their best to learn and it is hoped that before the end of the summer all will have mastered the art. All the scouts and Scoutmaster wish to thank Miss Katie Weston for her kindness in presenting them with a five pointed box of the best chocolates. These were given as prizes on Monday and added much to the zest of the games. There will be no meeting Friday evening. The postponed competition fire lighting, will be held next Saturday. Scouts to meet at club room at two p. m.

An important question regarding camping will be decided at that meeting.
