FAIRWEATHER DRAMATIC Co.- Tl.is mpany played Monday and Tuesday enings to small houses in Music Hall. On Monday, "Blow for Blov" a peculiar medy was presented; but the smallness comedy was presented; but the smallness of the house failed to enthuse the company to put forth their best efforts and the play fell flat. On Tuesday "A Lucky Hit" and "A Lancashire Lass" were put on with smaller nouses. The fairweather is well known in theatrical creles in St. John. They played at Dorchester last night, Shediac, to night; and Monchest Fritay and Saurday.

KILLED AT MONCTON—George Dixon, formerly of Upper Sackville, head miller at Chas. Fawcett's flouring mill.

Moncton, was instantly killed in the will be discussed:

Moncton, was instantly killed in the mill on Tuesday evening last. Mr. Dixon went to the upper story of the mill shortly before closing time to fill an oat bin, and in passing a vertical shaft became entangled in the gearing in some unexplainable manner and when found by one of the mill hands was quite dead. Mr. Bell, manager of the mill says the unfortunate man had no occasion to go upstairs and further that it was not his work but that of a younger man to go to the upper flat. The shaft in question was well protected and the passage way was fully 4 feet away. There is a possibility that Mr. Dixon fell against the ahaft while in a faint. The inquest resulted in a verdict according to the facts and that no blame is attached to any one. The deceased gentleman is a cousin of W. B. Dixon Esq. and nephew of Mr. J. D. Dixon of Sackville. He has three sons and a daughter with whom he resided living in Moncton.

Among the attractions at the band concert will be a solo by Mrs. Harrison

To the Editors of Post.

Dear Sir.— A year ago I resigned my charge in Sackville, and I want to say to the friends of former days that I do not forget them nor the happy years spent among you. In pages of the Post i read eagerly, events, its advertisements, and have noted the many changes which are taking place. Its death records have often surprised me and I wish to extend to, all the bereaved, whether connected with the Baptist congregation or not, my deepest sympathy. Of course I have been most affected by the deaths of those with whom I have best acquainted. But I pray that God will sustain all who sorgow, and give grace to cast every care on Him.

As for myself it has been a year of toil, but I hope not entirely fruitless. Again we are engaged in building a house of worship and hope (D. V.) to have it finished in the early summer. We really needed the house, and as our people are poor, we will gladly receive aid from any ricends toward our building funds.

Spiritually we have some encouragement. Three (3) are received for baptism TO THE EDITOR OF POST.
