Making Excuses

TREATMENT

People generally regard the habit of making excuses as a bad one to into, but if they are asked why it is a bad habit, they may not be ready it encorages a man to shirk difficult-coming them, others that it is bad declared D.W. Morrison; (Labor, because it is an egotistical and tire Cape Breton) in the House this even some habit, one that compels people ing. The statement followed a ques to listen to explanations that they tion put by Mr. Morison to the Mihave no desire to hear.

No doubt there is truth in all those reasons. If a person is selfindulgent, he is prone to make excuses, and the more successful in making excuses the more self-indulgent he is likely to become. If it is a trouble to him, as it usually is, to put forth his best efforts, he can find reasons why it is impossible for him to put forth his best efforts. He becomes more concerned with plaus ibility than with reality, and he begins to use his power of invention in a base manner. Thus insincerity grows upon him, even while he is

And yet there is something to 'x said for the people who cannot resist the desire to excuse themselves when they feel they have been at fault. They are amiable people, they are sensitive, they wish not to wound other person's feelings. A man who never makes excuses must be either so complacent that he never cons of himself as at fault or so ruthless that he does not care what lings he tramples on.

Awkwardness in making excuse etten-times makes the fault the worse y the excuse, to paraphrase Shakes peare. If you must make excuses den't be awkward about it .- Youth's Companion.)

"I was feeling greatly in need of a tonic at that time," he continued. and as the ads. said Tanlac was good for anybody in a badly rundown condition, I decided to try it. The medicine promptly built me up and I was soon back in fine health. "I have been strong and well ever since, until a few weeks ago when I began to get weaker and felt all tired out, and was afraid I would catch the grip if I didn't keep fit. So I went back to Tanlac and am now taking it, with the same good results I got before. It certainly is a dependable medicine, and I'll always recommend it."

Says Cape Breton May Secede From Province

Halifax, April 17-"The county of Cape Breton furnishes twenty-nine per cent of the revenue of this province and I want to tell you that if it tends to destroy a man's sincerity Cape Breton does not get its rights as well as his strength, others that the time is not far distant when it will break away from the mainland and obstacles instead of over-altogether and get them that way." nister of Highways, in committee of supply asking what work was proosed for Cape Breton roads during he coming season.
